Summer is doing crazy things — Eating hotdogs, popcorn, and cotton candy.
It's buying a bottle of 'baby oil'
on a sunny afternoon
And feeling like a lobster several hours later.
It's the beauty and vividness of nature, golden rays shining through hearty branches —
A time of peace, love,
and sheer happiness.

IN THE GOOD OL' SUMMERTIME

Sounds of vibrant voices, throbbing
heartbeats,
Climbing into the captivating "Mad
Mouse," fastening seat belts,
Taking a scenic ride on the "thrilling"
train, Breathlessness gained from stimulating
sports,
The joy of wasting time and loving every minute —
All typify the intense freedom of the GREAT SUMMERTIME!

Walk
Together
Talk
Together

The coming of summer took two students away from home. Many uttered their goodbyes as Larry boarded his plane. To him, Brazil brought new experiences, memorable friends. To us, it brought a warm smile, a congenial personality. Reiner Bonnaire shared his German culture with us. He cheered and sang on Pep Club buses, helped us with our calculus. We hope his year was enjoyable — one he will always cherish.
AUF WIEDERSEHEN WIR MÖGEN DICH!

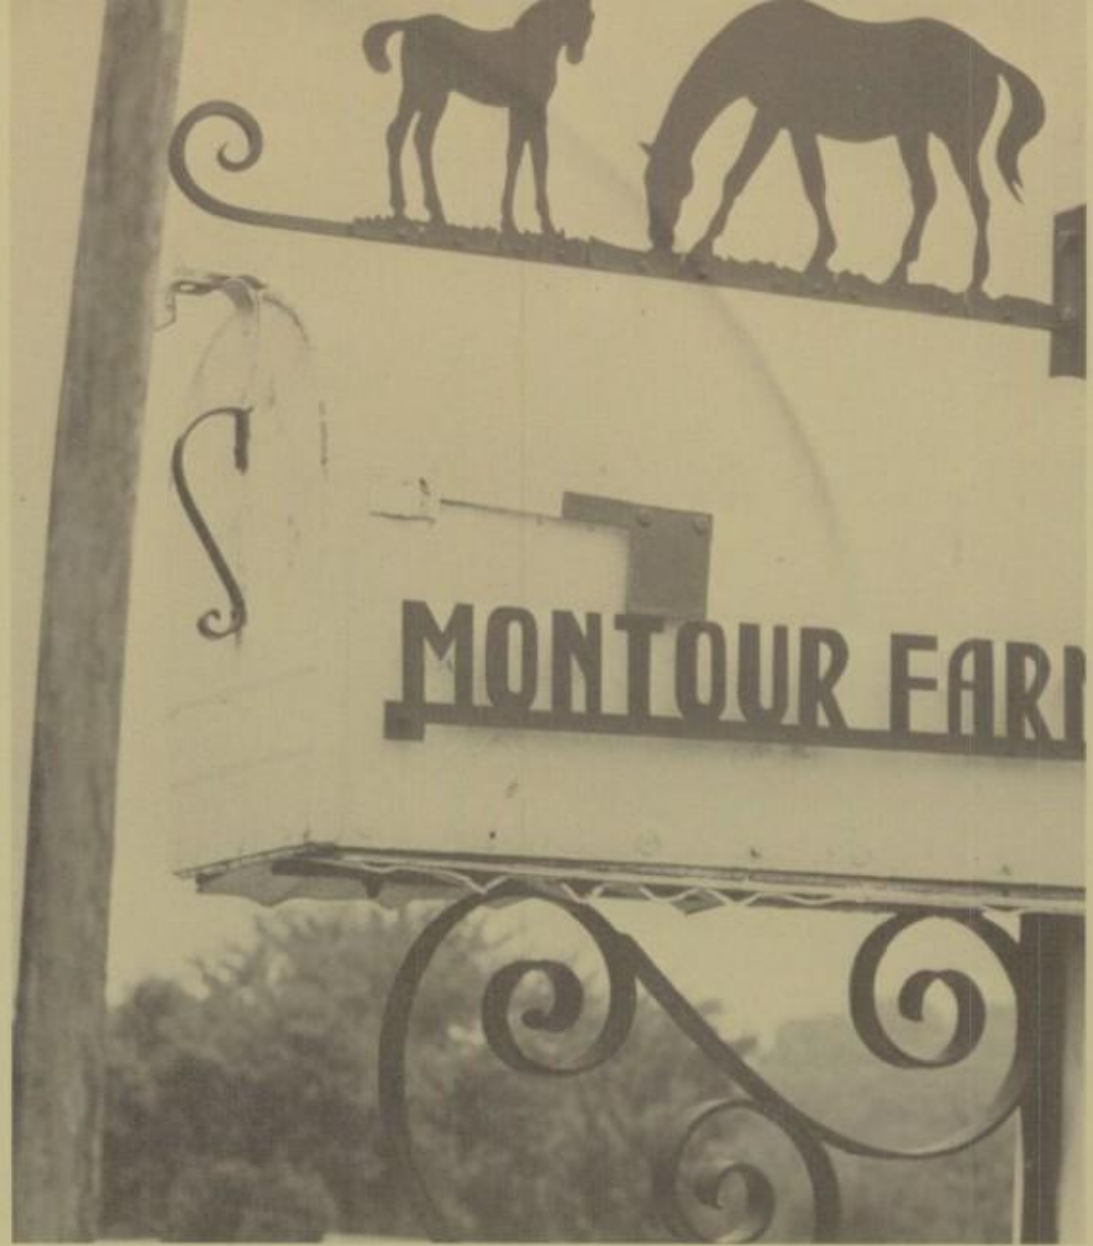

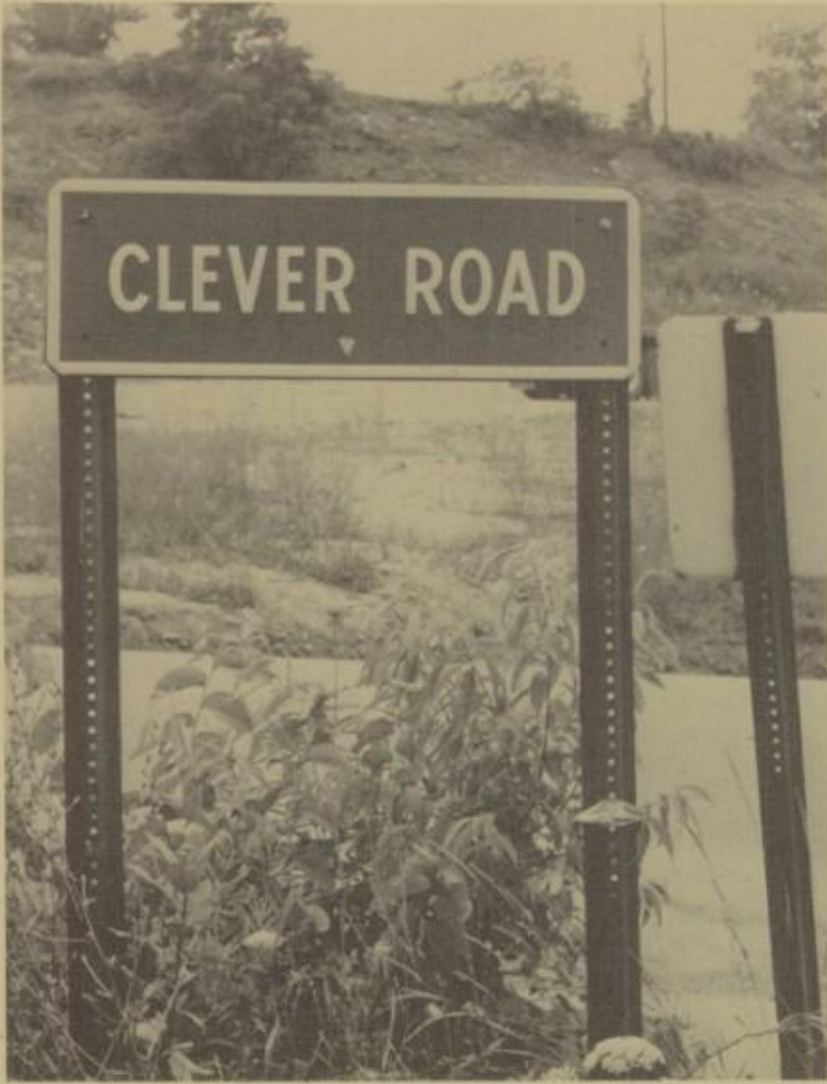

Practicing in the heat of a sultry day, working out in the gym, Occasional mops and buckets strewn about the deserted hallways,
Window washers, the scent of freshly painted walls,
Tuning instruments, marching for hours,
The energy exerted at band and football camp,
Representing the various aspects of our CONDITIONING
Throughout the sweltering months of summer.

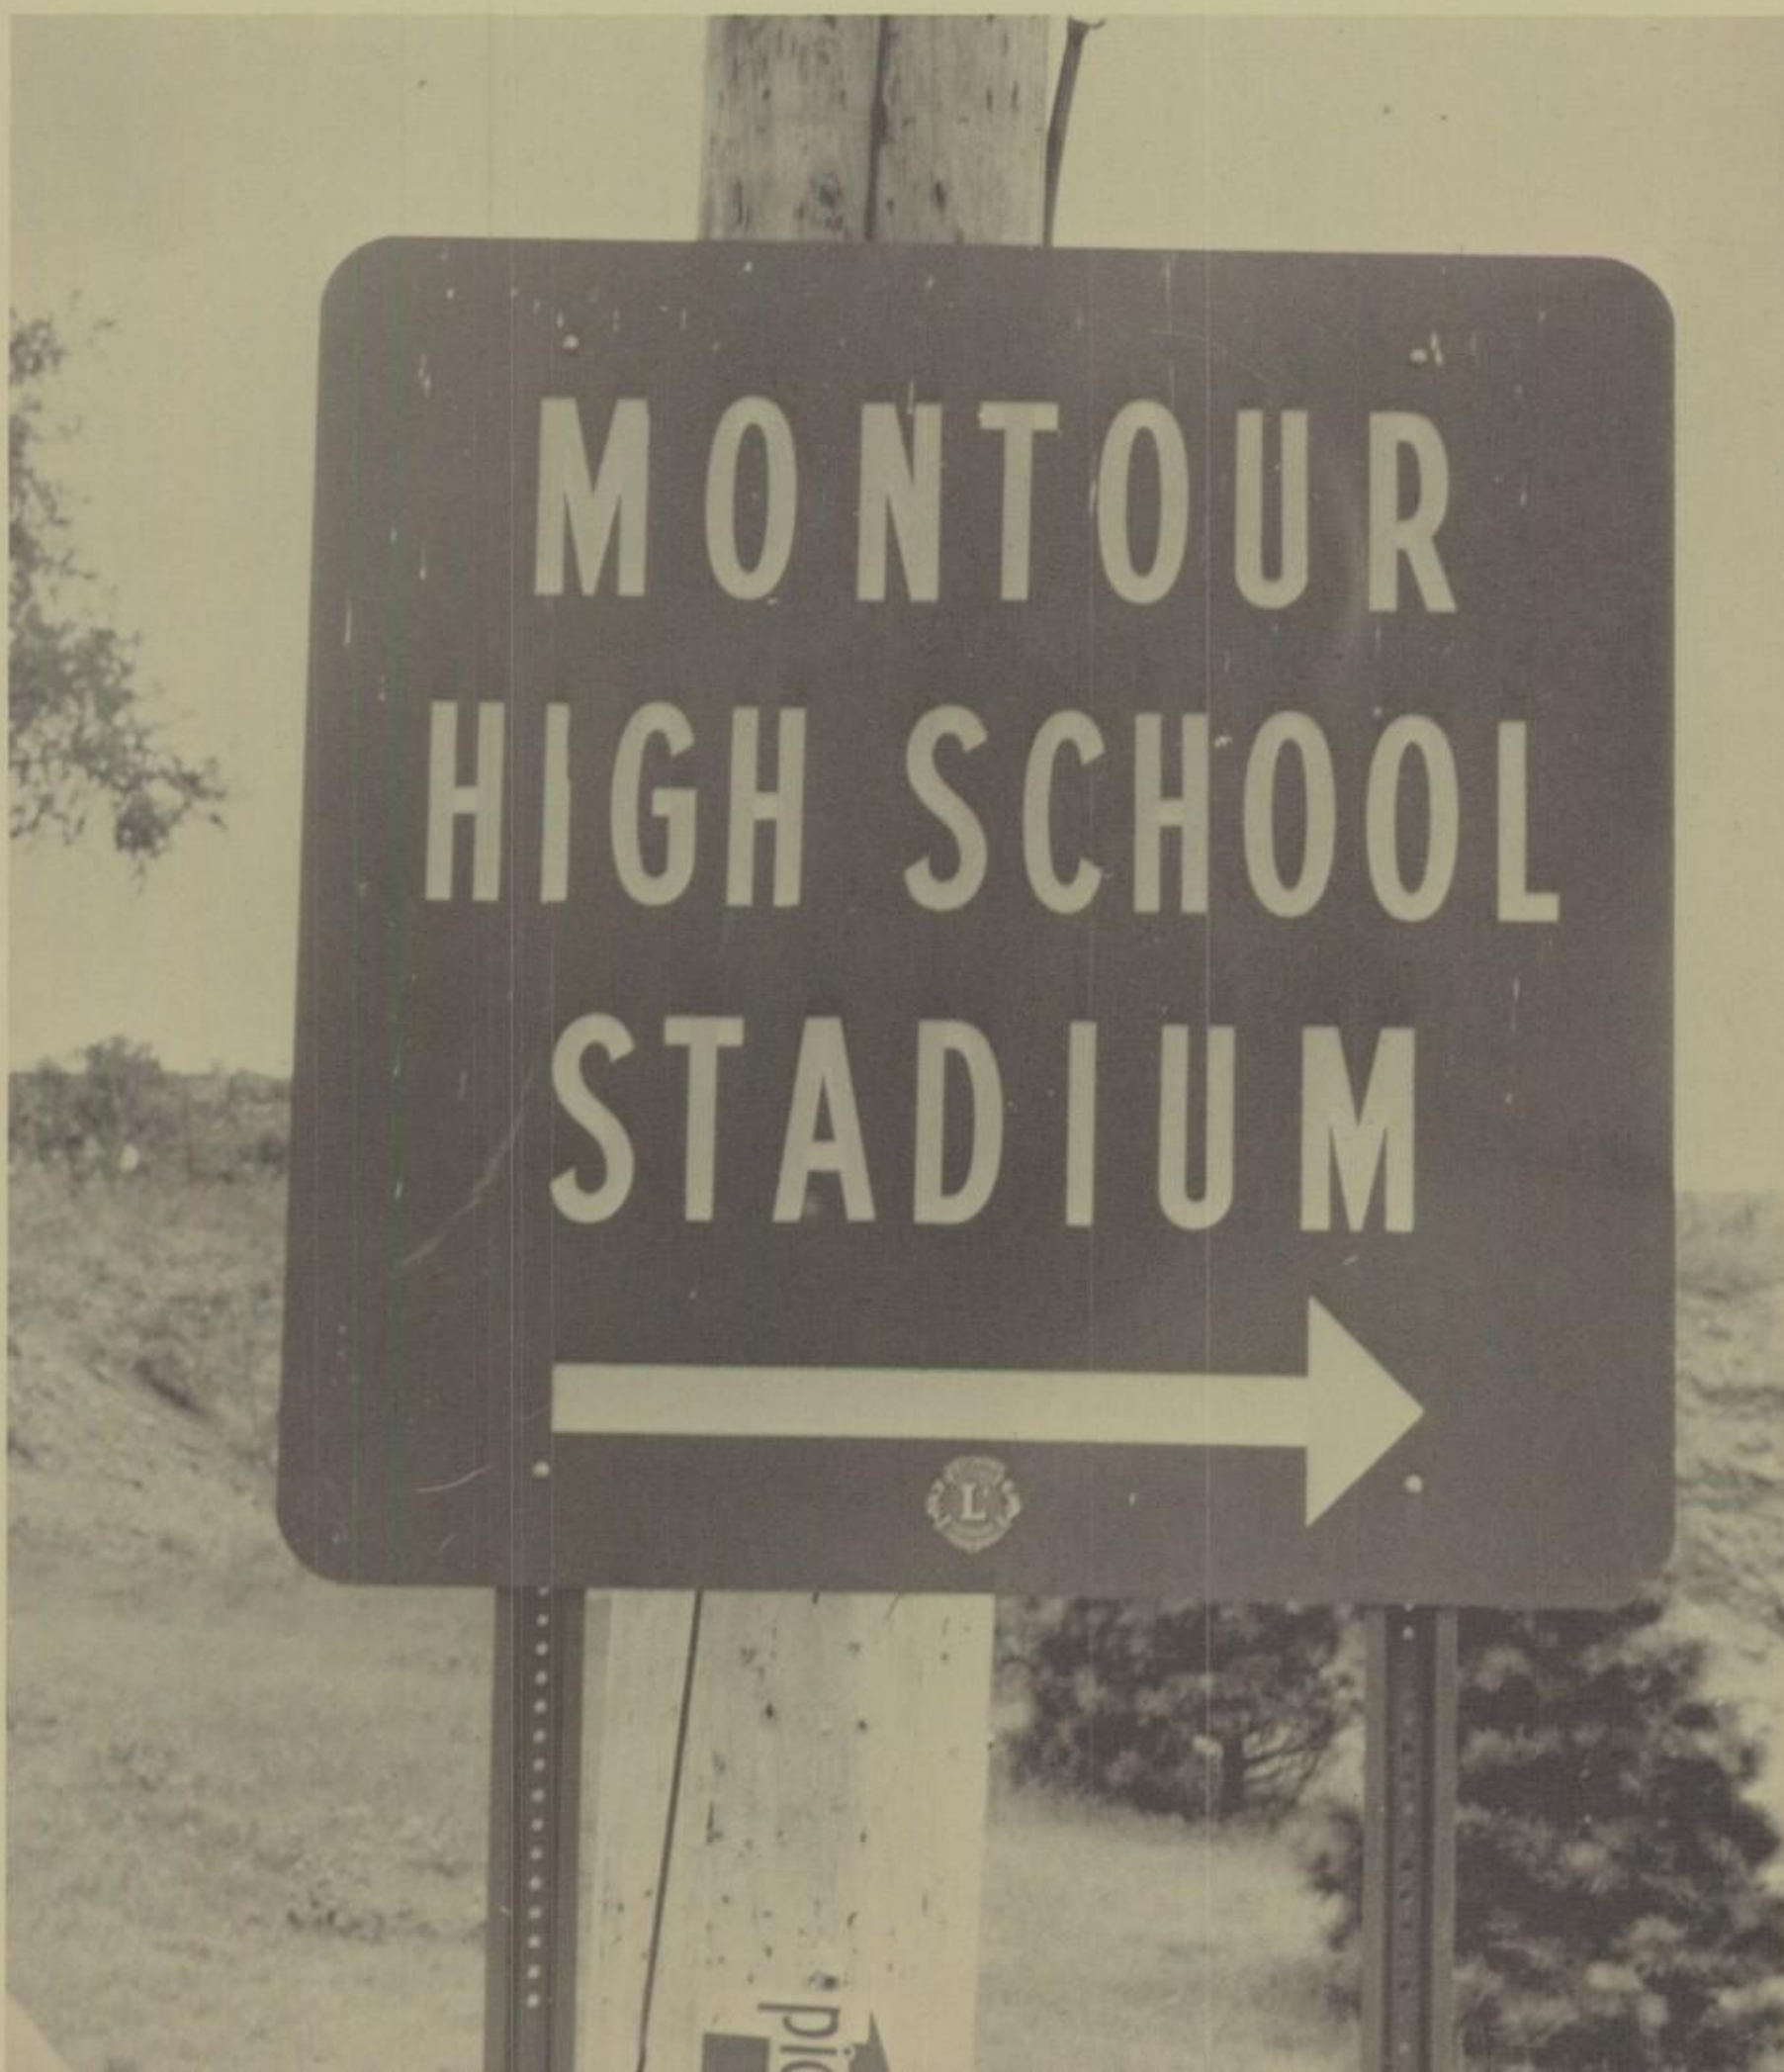

Summer Conditioning

All Signs Lead to Montour

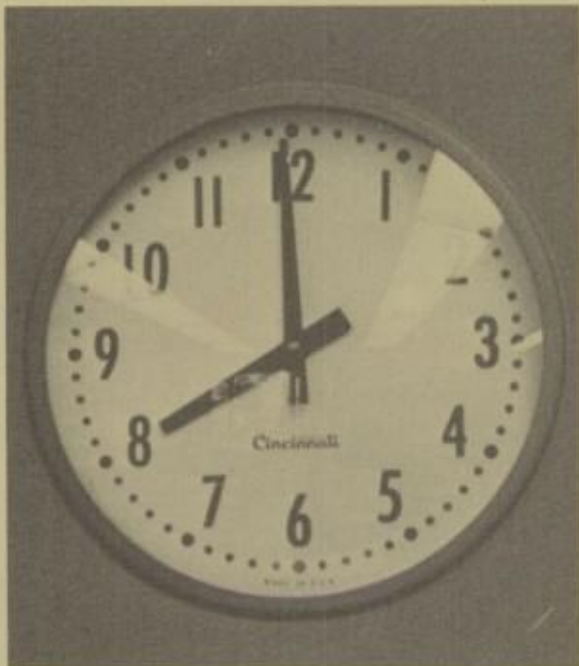

The word MONTOUR represents a variety of things.
To us, however, it symbolizes only one.
As the summer draws to an end, time continues.
A new year is approaching; we all ascend the hill.
Thus, all signs lead to Montour!

Getting up late — what a way to start off a day!
Running to the bus stop, remembering the item left at home as the bus pulls away.
Indeed this bus is like a second home —
A place for sharing our gripes, troubles, joy, and happiness
day after day.
. . . Approaching school,
we are greeted by Mrs. Lease,
the school guard.
Rain or shine
her warm and friendly smile helps our day to begin cheerfully.

A typical school day actually begins here.
 Pledging allegiance to the flag, a moment of silence,
 A teacher demanding quiet during morning
 announcements,
 All of these depicting routine happenings
 we all experience.
 Day after day, as the year proceeds, we report to the same homeroom.
 Yet, many of us when asked, never do remember the number!

A P.O.D. test — first period is here!

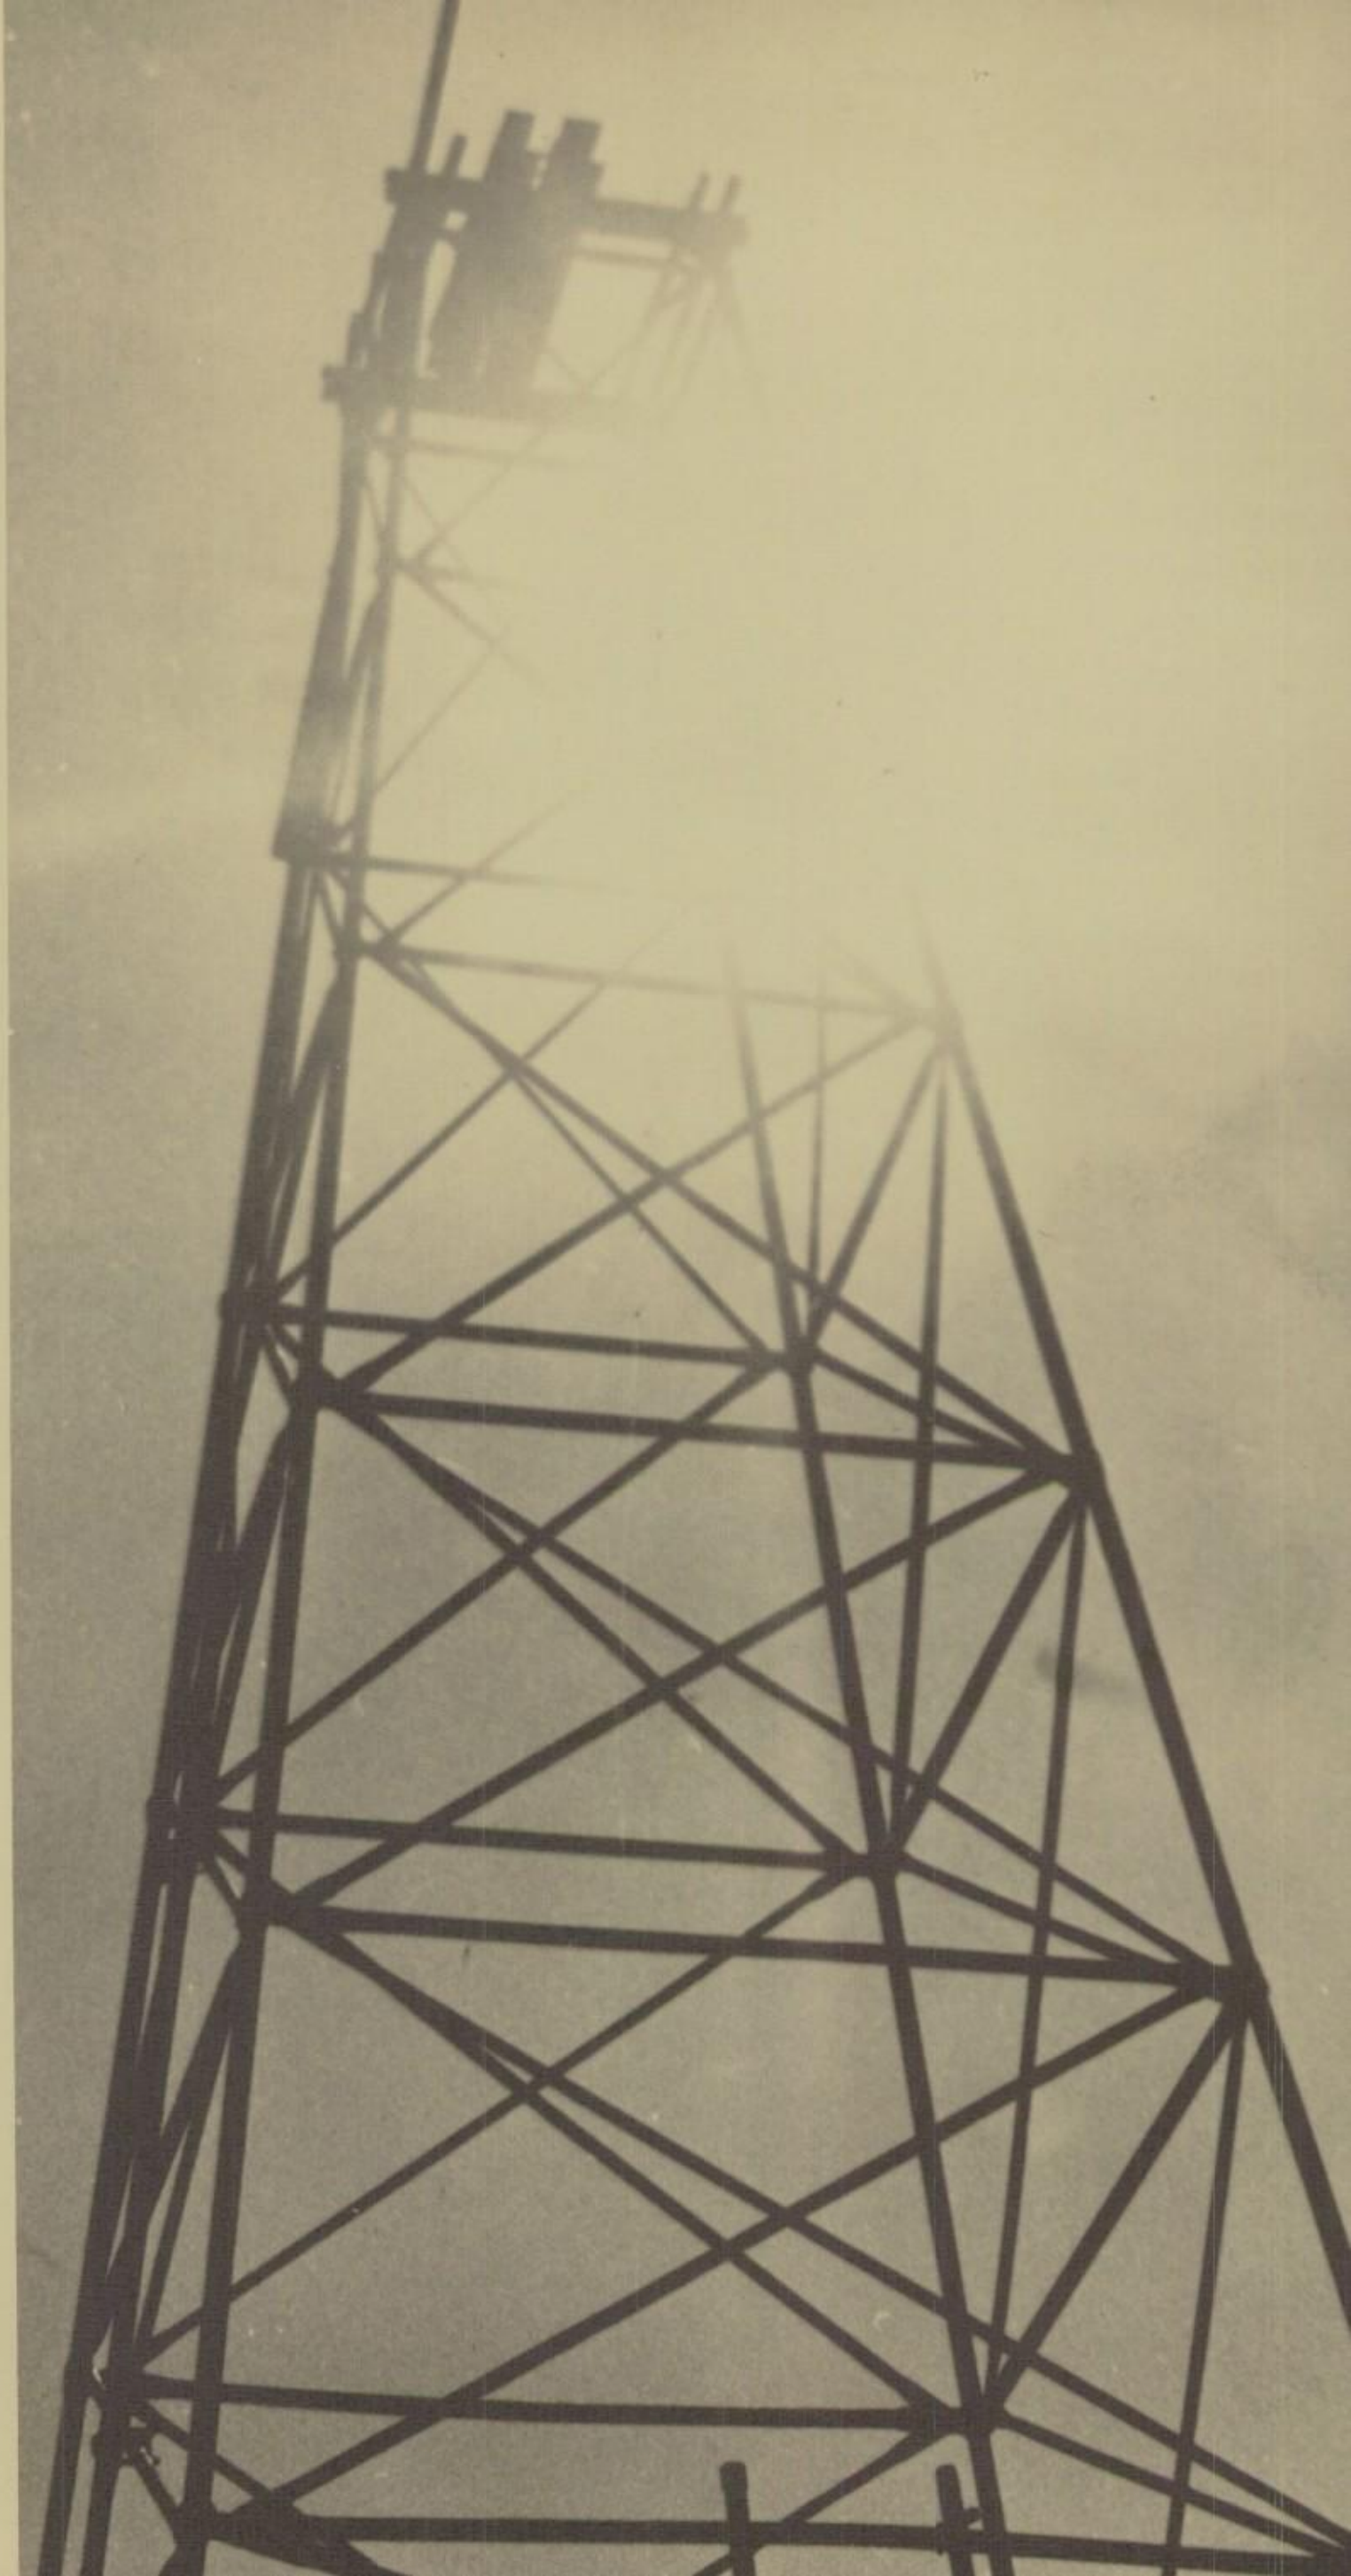

Barely finishing, we realize that cramming in homeroom wasn't the answer.

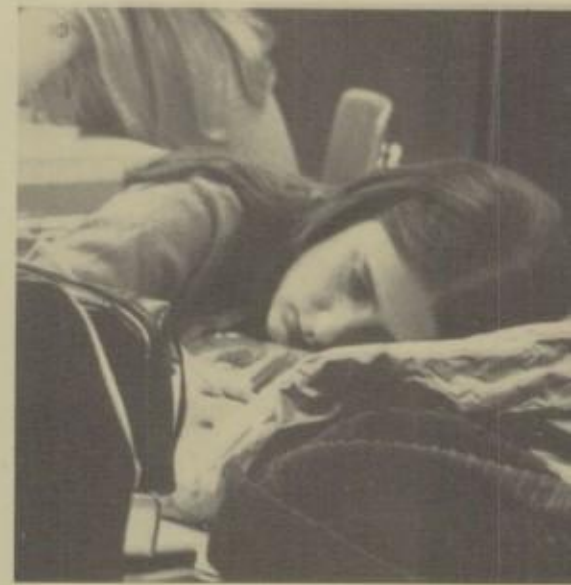

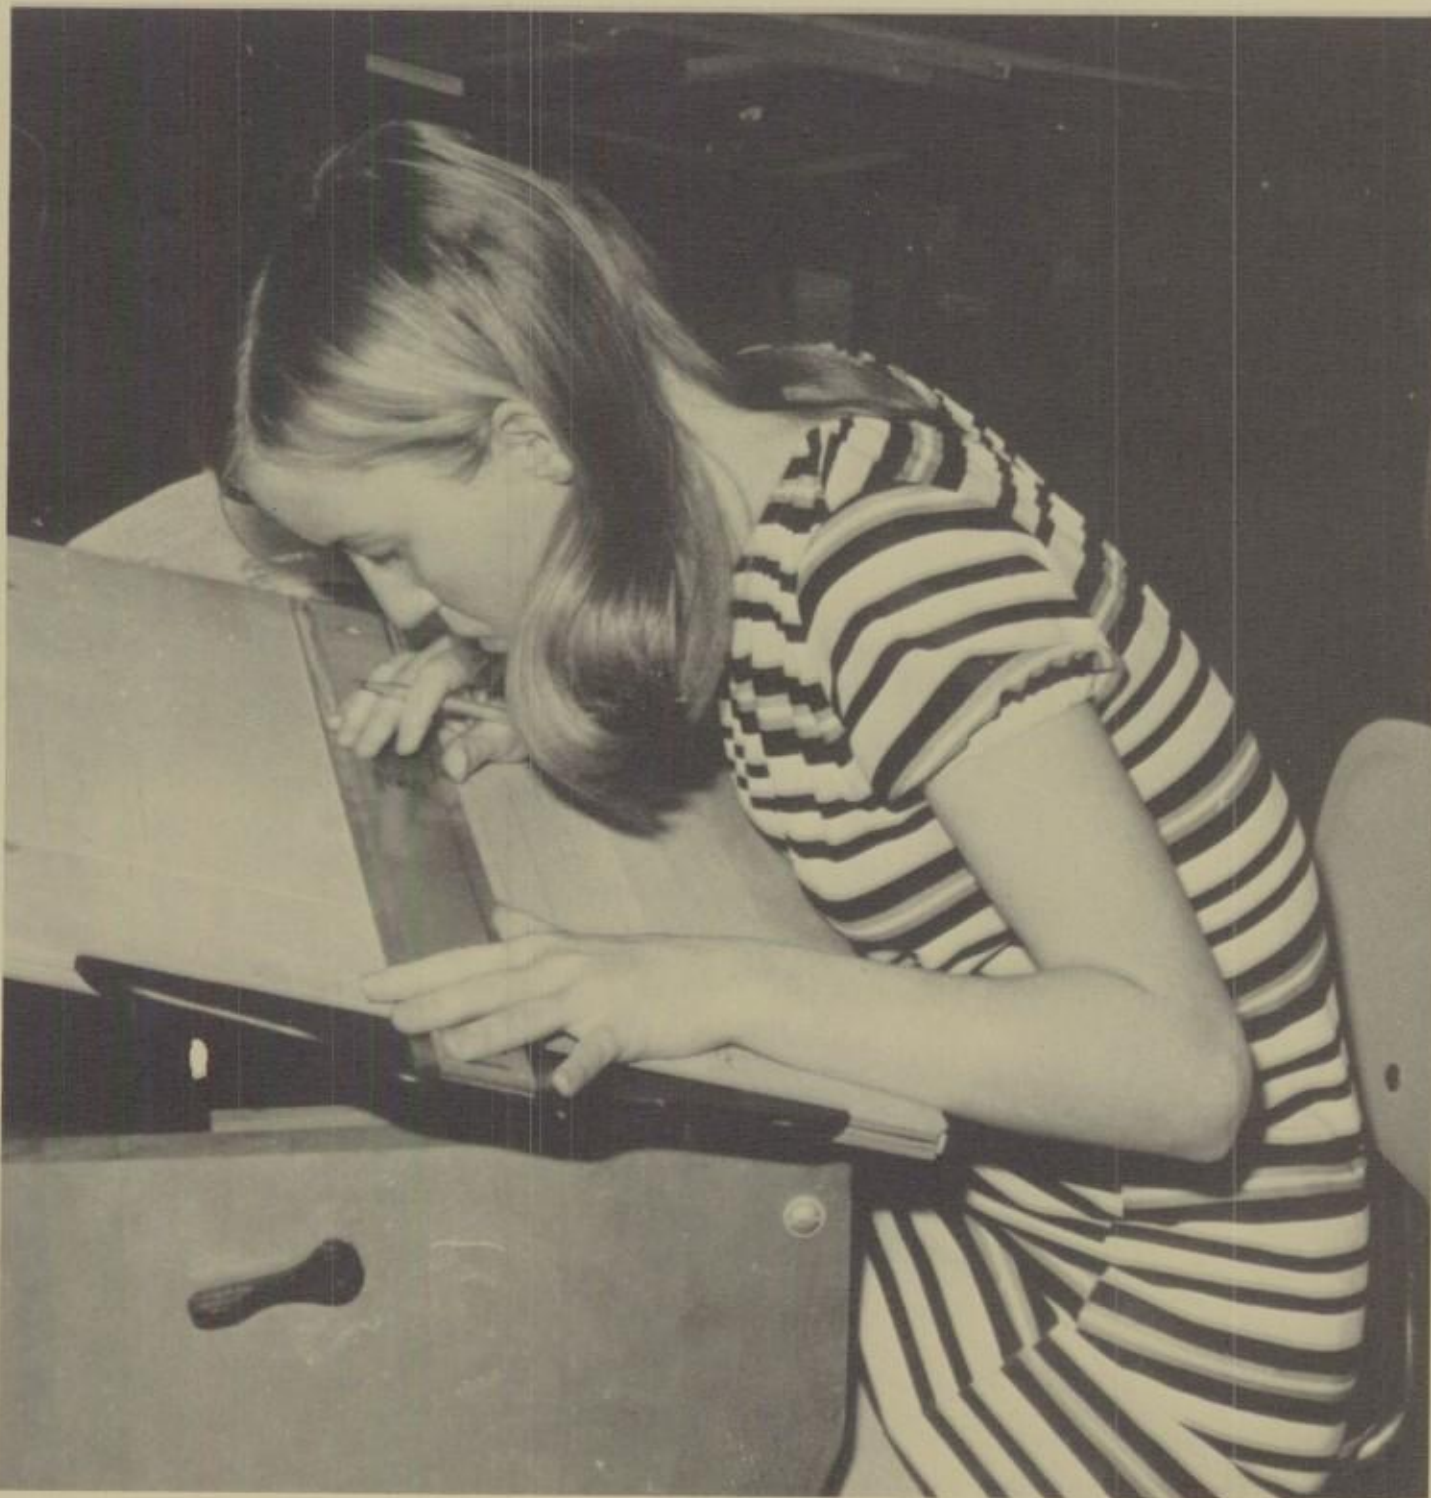

The bell rings and classrooms gradually begin emptying.

Lockers banging, running for classes period after period.

With the encouraging thoughts of lunch, we sit through fourth period.

Isn't this a typical morning?

Sitting in class, trying to conceal the "growlings" of a hungry appetite.

The bell rings and the masses rush, for the cafeteria hour begins.

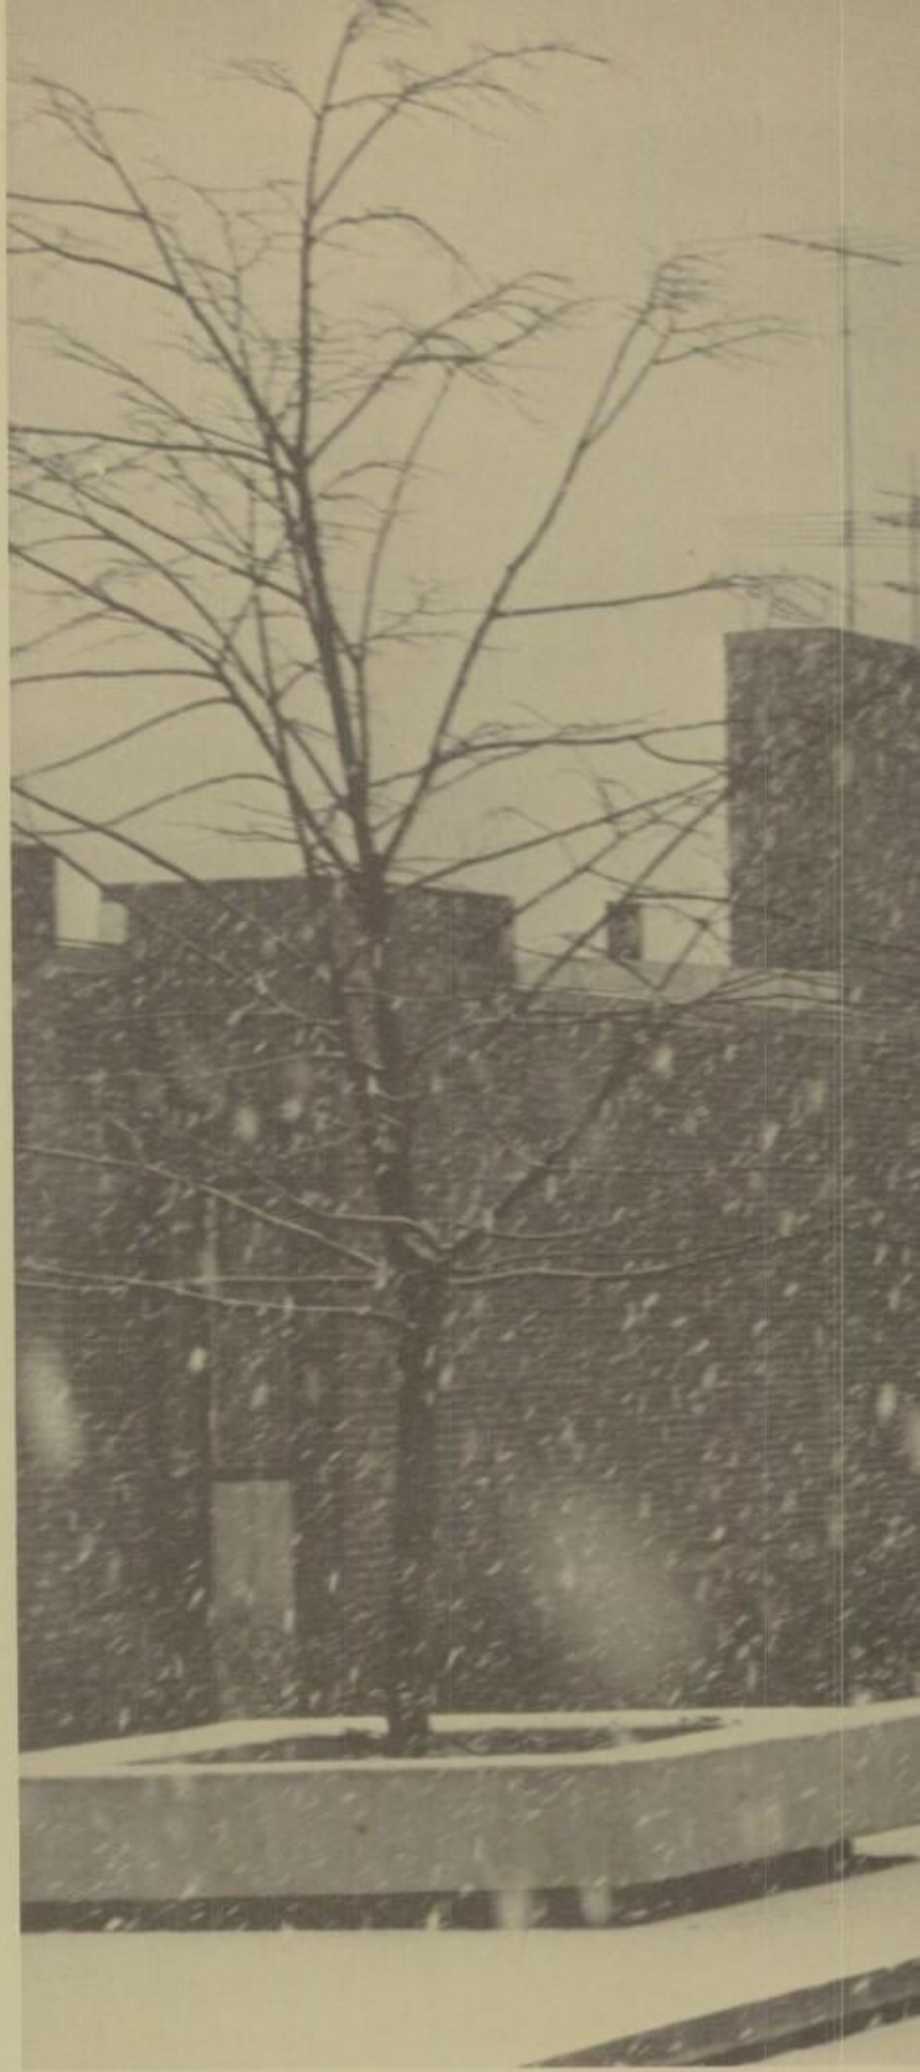

"Nutritious" meals are offered, ranging from the à la carte to a full course.

This is a break from the monotony of a weary day,
A time for enjoying our food with a group of friends.

When the Snow Falls
Serenity Reigns . . .
Until . . .

Winter is here; scattered snowflakes fill the air.
The surrounding hillsides, walks, and roofs are gradually transformed into a snowy blanket.
Gazing from within, we are intrigued.
The silence is broken; the battle is on!
Snowballs whiz through the air; hands, feet,
arms, and legs turn crimson.
A sly snowball, dripping hair — what a feeling!
But all too soon our fun ceases as we return to class.

The library — a place for doing research or simply reading your favorite magazine. Historical material, biographies, and the latest novels are all available. Overlooking the countryside, it provides an inspiring place for studying. Yes, it's the perfect way to spend your free time!

Lunch is over; the bell rings for the sixth period. The halls begin to empty as the classrooms fill.

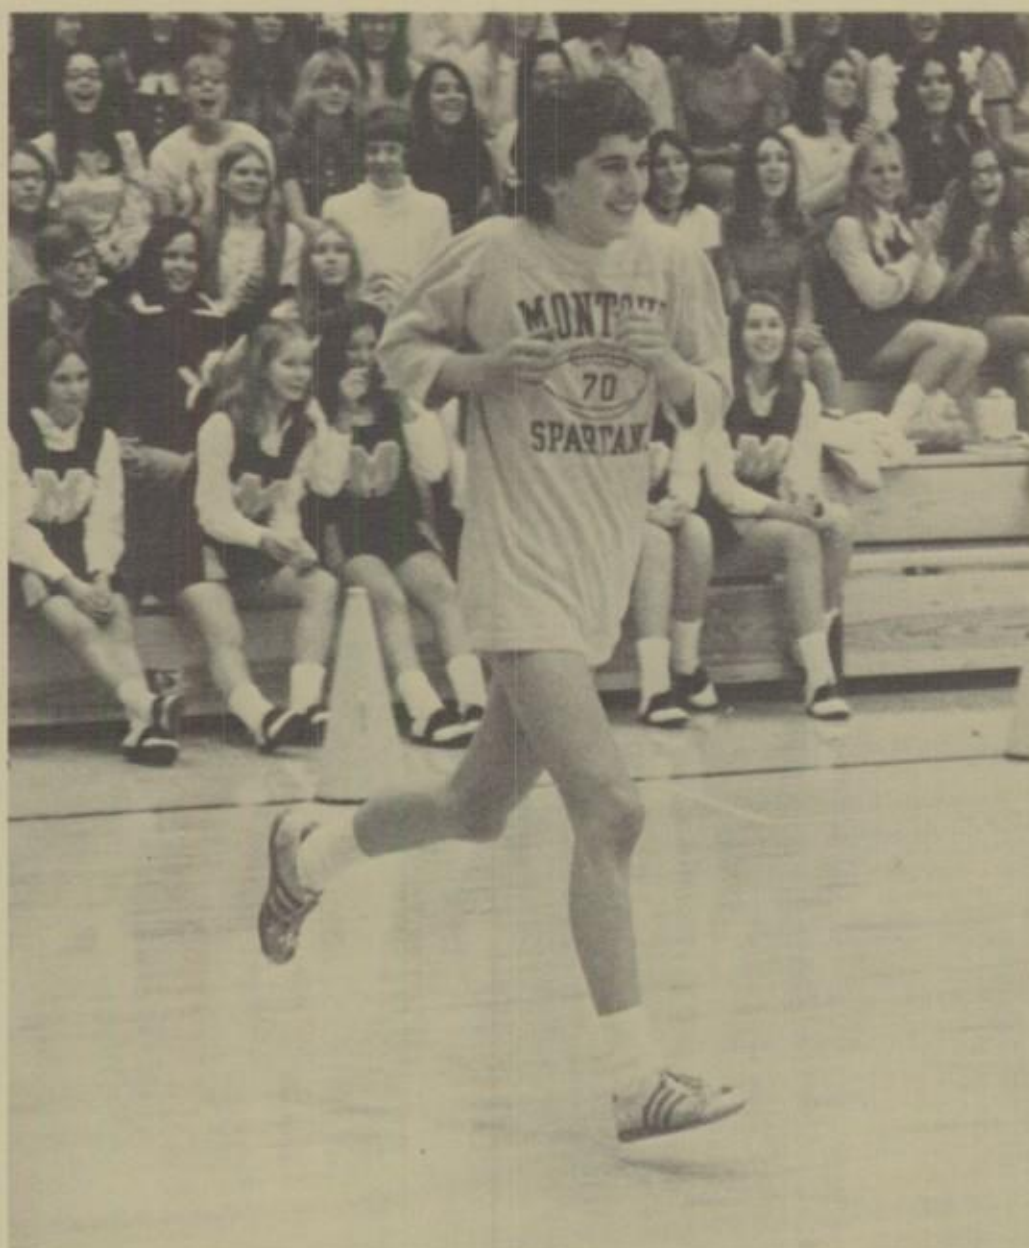

Welcoming thoughts of our last class encourage us in our studies.

Seventh period is here: newspaper, band, yearbook, and athletics meet.

It's time for hard work and much fun — a swell way to end the day!

M-O-N-T-O-U-R — cheering our loudest, Expressing our great pride in our team,
 Amusing skits displaying the many
 "talented" pep club members, Majorettes and Spartanettes performing brisk routines, inspiring words from an important person, our coach,
 Mr. Connor,
 Chants led by the cheerleaders, singing our Alma Mater,
 Pep Assemblies — exhibiting our great school spirit!

The Oh
No's!!

Report Cards — the day of doom is here!
 Anxiously awaiting, we hope for only the best.
 Will we get that extra point or spend our Friday nights studying?
 After all of the nervous tension, it is in our hands.
 Receiving the final outcome, we leave for home, happy or disappointed.

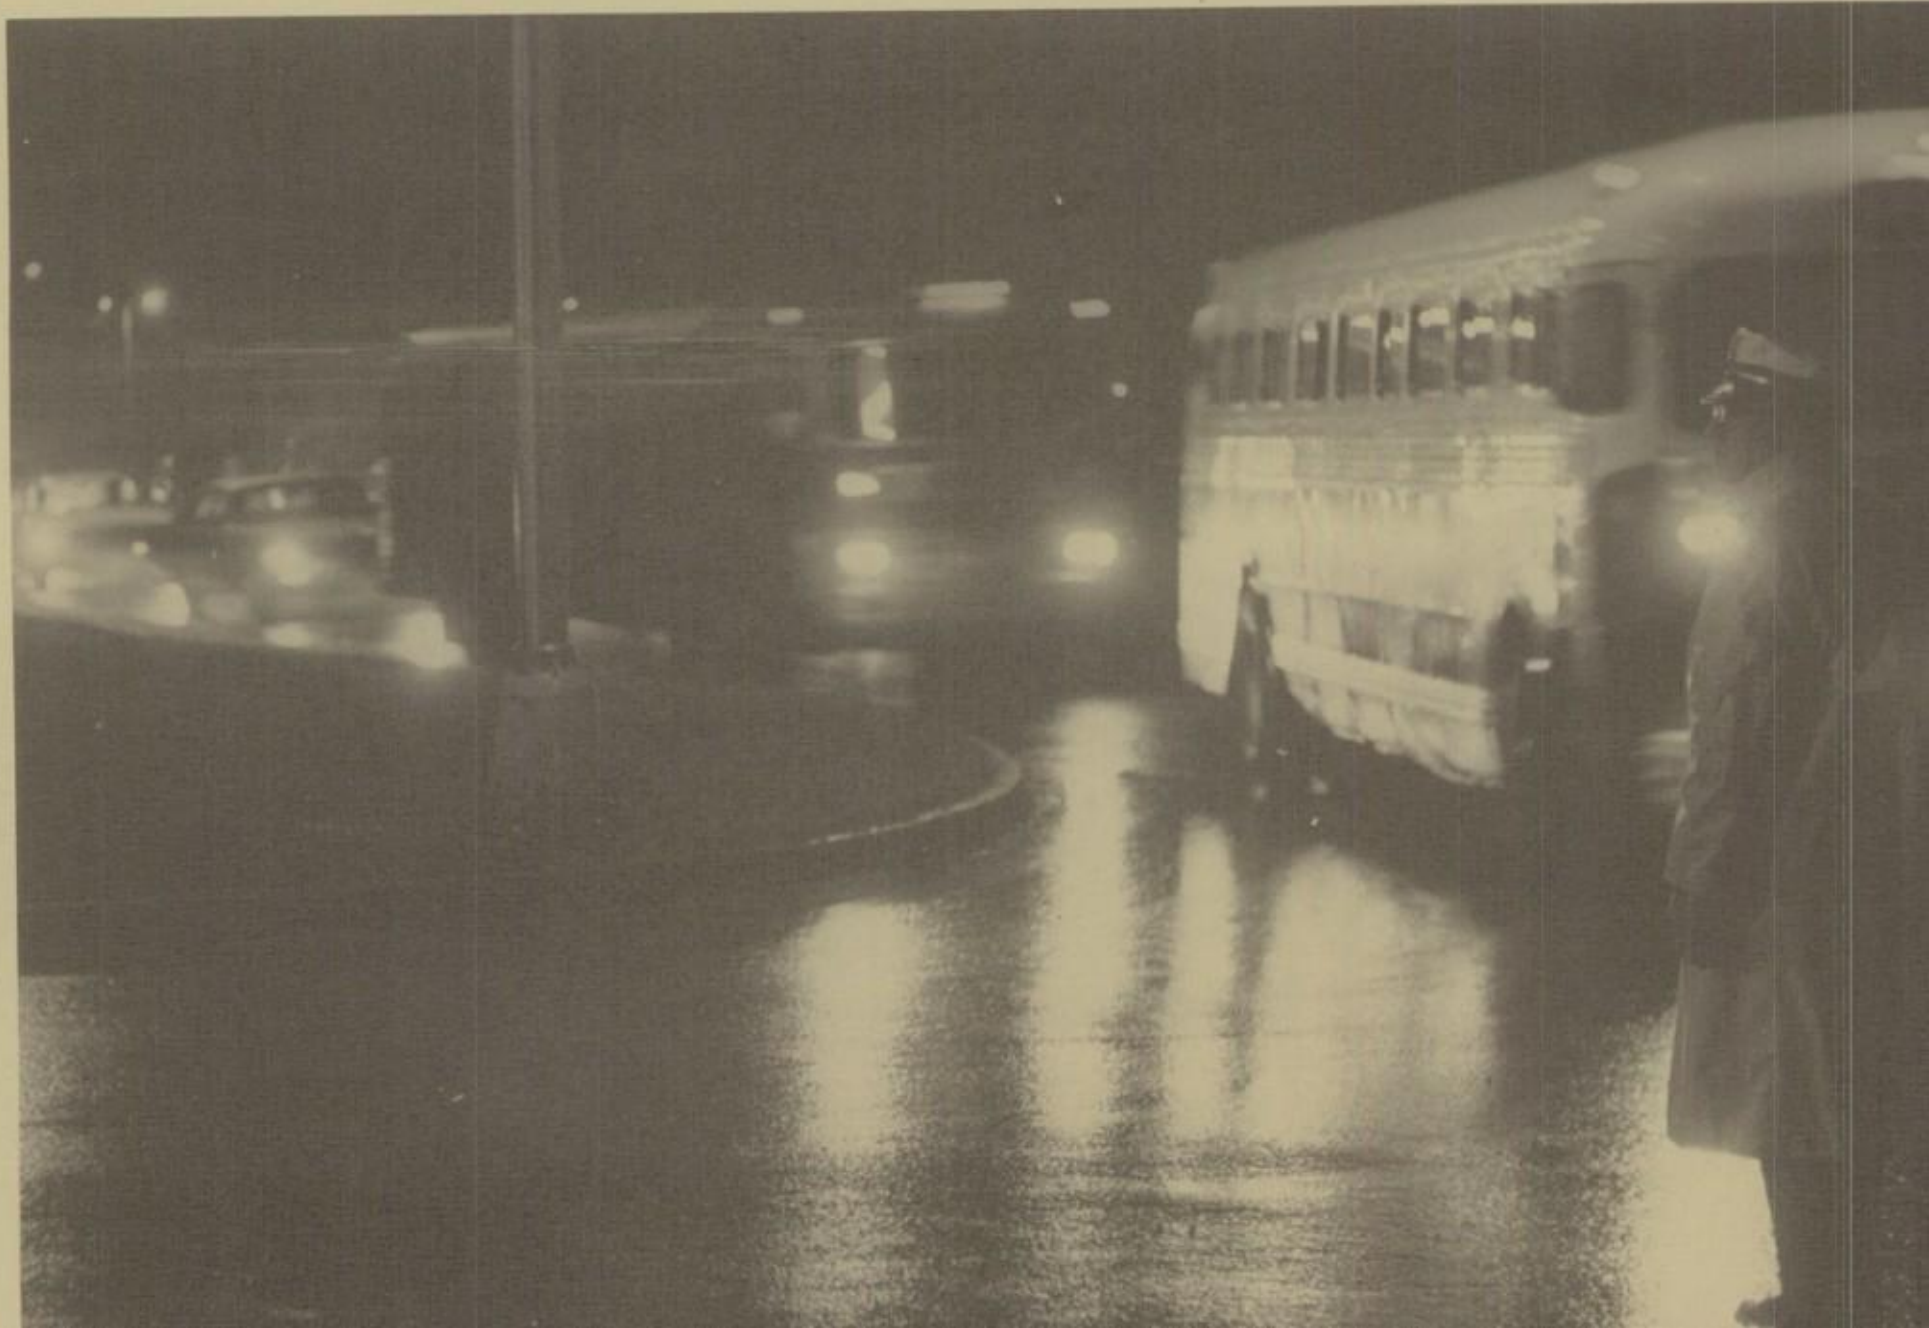

2:50 — Salvation sounds
 Doors open, students swarm the halls,
 Lockers bang, coats fly.
 Students anxiously climb aboard the buses.
 The parade moves down the hill, leaving behind serenity and silence.

The Twilight Hour

A fun-loving comedy of the anxieties and difficulties confronting youth
 The seemingly endless rehearsals, snacks during breaks, ad libbing a line before a crowded audience
 All of the joy and nervousness of being a member of the cast
 The Boarding House Reach will long be remembered

Boarding House Reach

Conrad Birdie — a teenage ideal about to be inducted into the Army.
Teenagers dancing, singing, and enjoying every minute of their youth — A musical depicting the enthusiasm and happiness of falling in love.
The Senior Class Play, BYE BYE BIRDIE will never be forgotten.
Yes, the many hours of rehearsal and all of the other strenuous activities involved produced a record-breaking success.
The "Standing Room Only" condition of the auditorium on the three consecutive nights proved the impact it had on the audience.
Who could possibly forget this sensational performance?

Bye Bye Birdie

Women's Lib

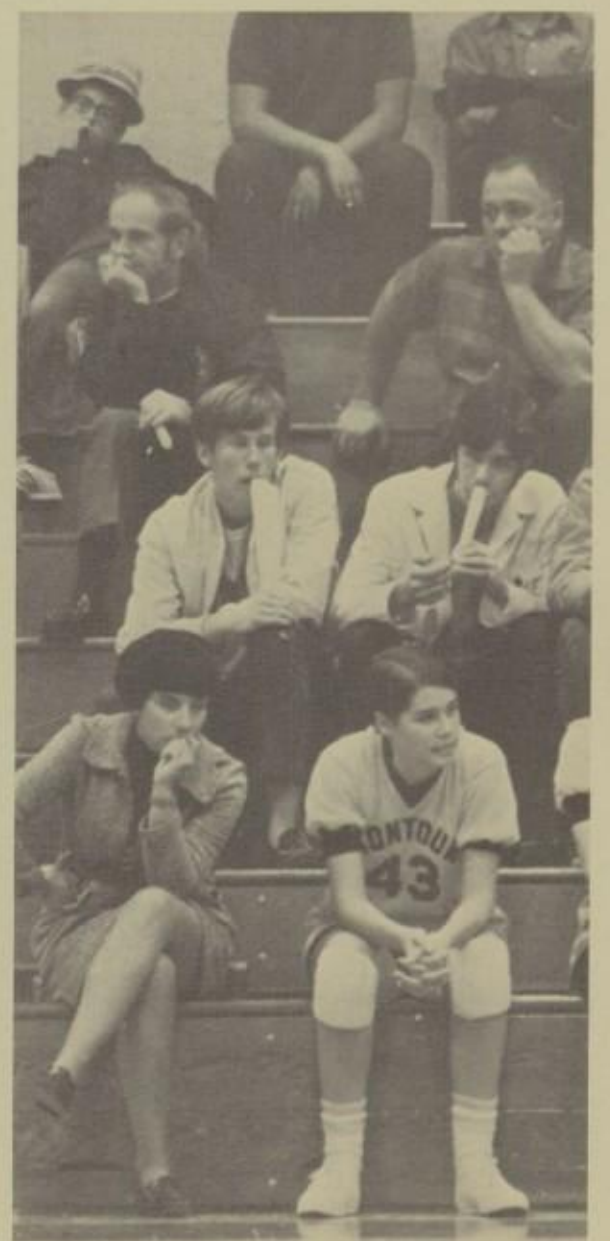

in Action

"Our girls" really come on strong!
Watching a girl's basketball game is like watching the pros.
Their shooting skills and startling speed
bring great pride to Montour.
Capturing the WPGAL section title, the Girl's Volleyball team proved their superiority.
Possessing a genuine determination brought them strong victories.
Our gymnastic team is an example of gracefulness and agility at its best.
Developing the proper techniques takes talent, and our girls sure have it!

Chipping, pitching, and putting — skills that must be developed,
Giving up free time to practice after school,
acquiring a good sense of balance, Achieving unfoiling powers of persistence and concentration.

Yes, golf is the name of the game.
Many of us, however, are unaware of the recognition
our team deserves.

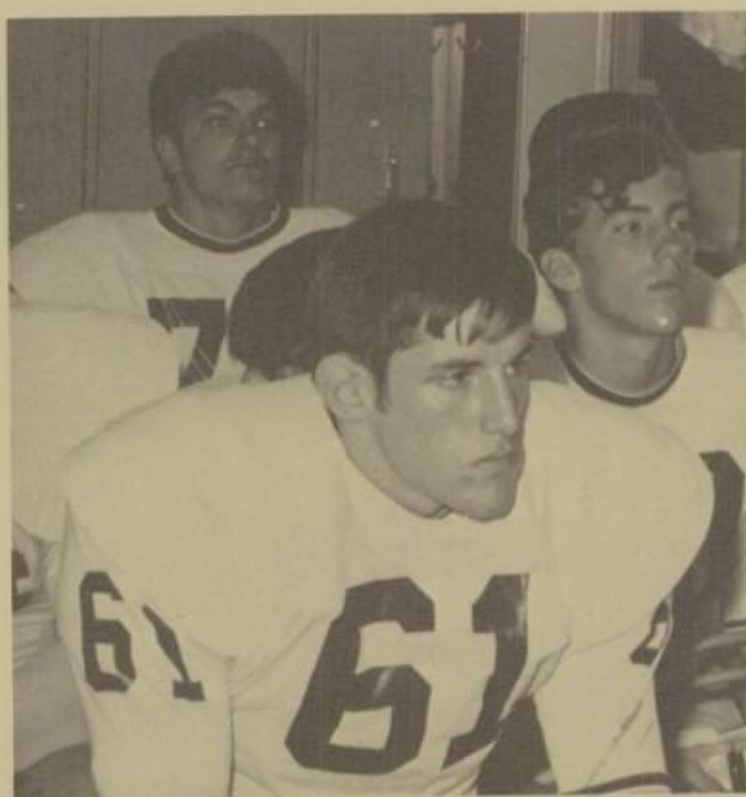

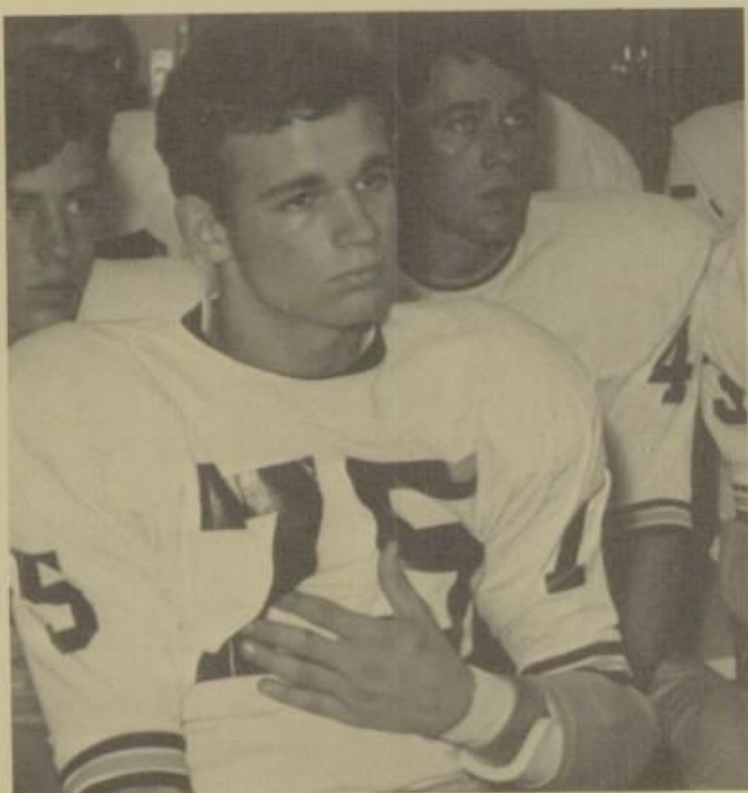

Capturing the SECTION 7, W.P.I.A.L. Golf title proved their true dedication.

. . . and special congratulations to Bob Cook and Brad Livingood, who qualified for the Semi-finals.

They'll Do It Every Time

It's Been a Hard Day's Night

The motivation only a locker room can give,
Preparing for the big event, studying plays, bandaging wounds,
Receiving engrossing pep talks,
The memorable comfort of a concrete floor,
A Hard Day's Night — A Spartan VICTORY!

Third Time's a Charm

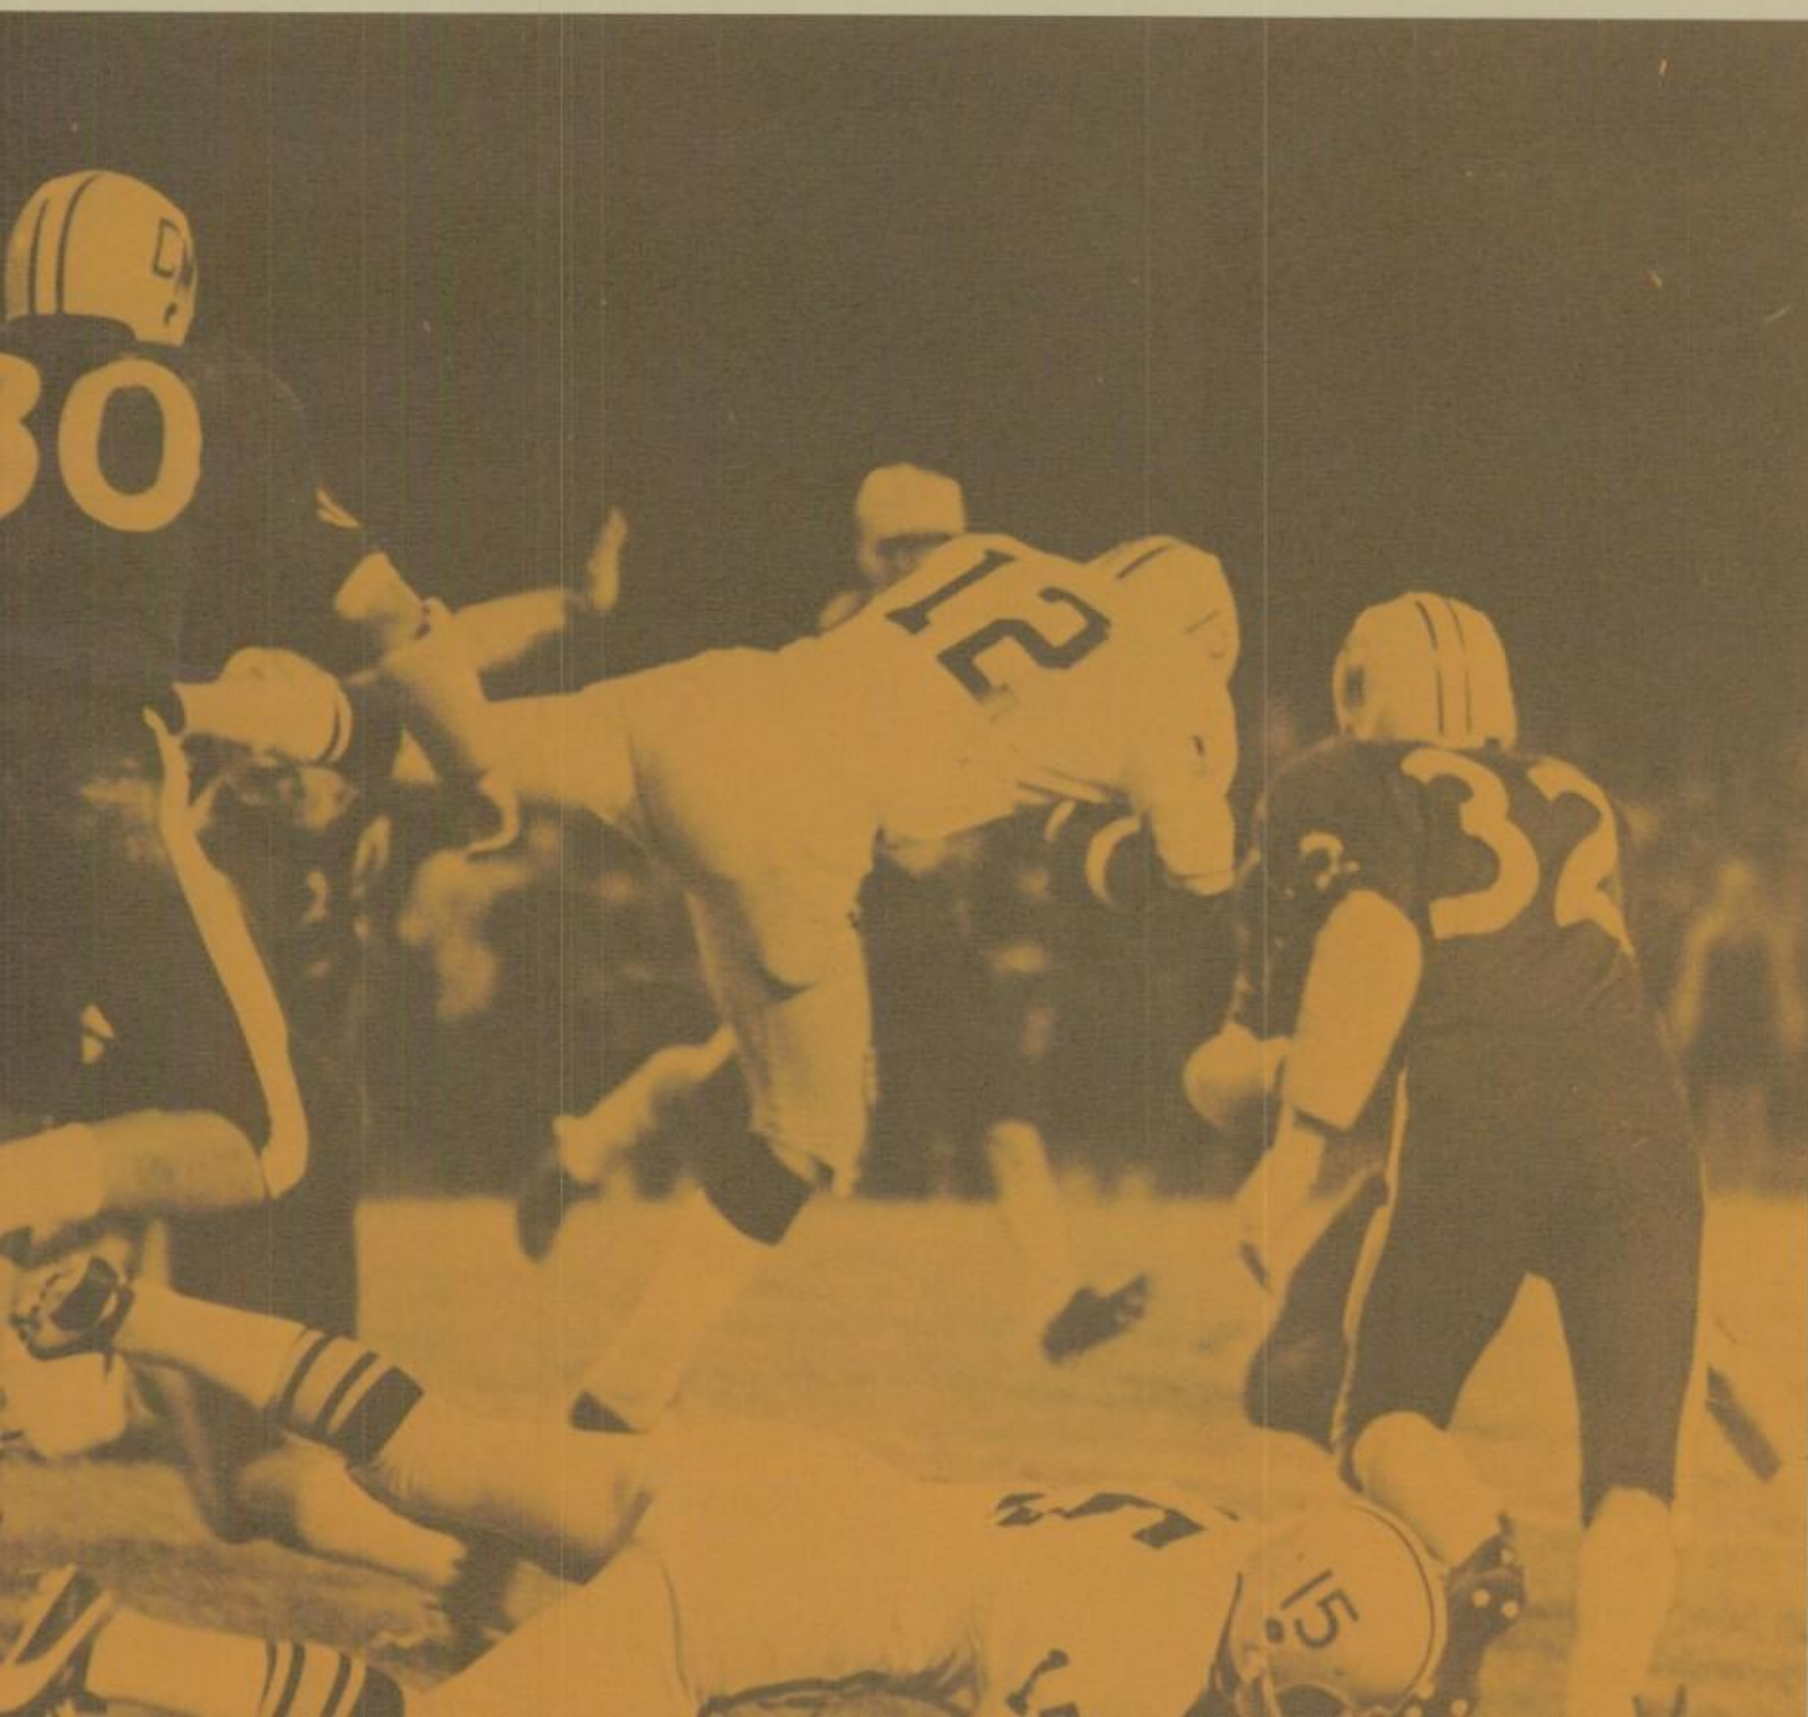

Y E S, we all felt the disappointment —
Losing first to Cannon-McMillan, 28-27,
With only four remaining minutes.
Then, to Mt. Lebanon, in the final minute, 22-20.

Our boys played their best,
But their pride suffered defeat.
This painful spell was broken, however, in our third game.

Upsetting Bethel, 14-6, was indeed a charm —

Proving "We're still Number One!"

If at First You Don't Succeed . . .

Try, Try, Again!

We all experienced the agony of defeat — Losing our first two games by a grand total of three points.

Breaking the ice, number three chalked up a sensational victory.

We screamed, we cheered, but Baldwin overcame us in a tough fourth game.

Our boys persevered; they practiced harder and played like never before —

Finishing the five remaining games with spectacular wins.

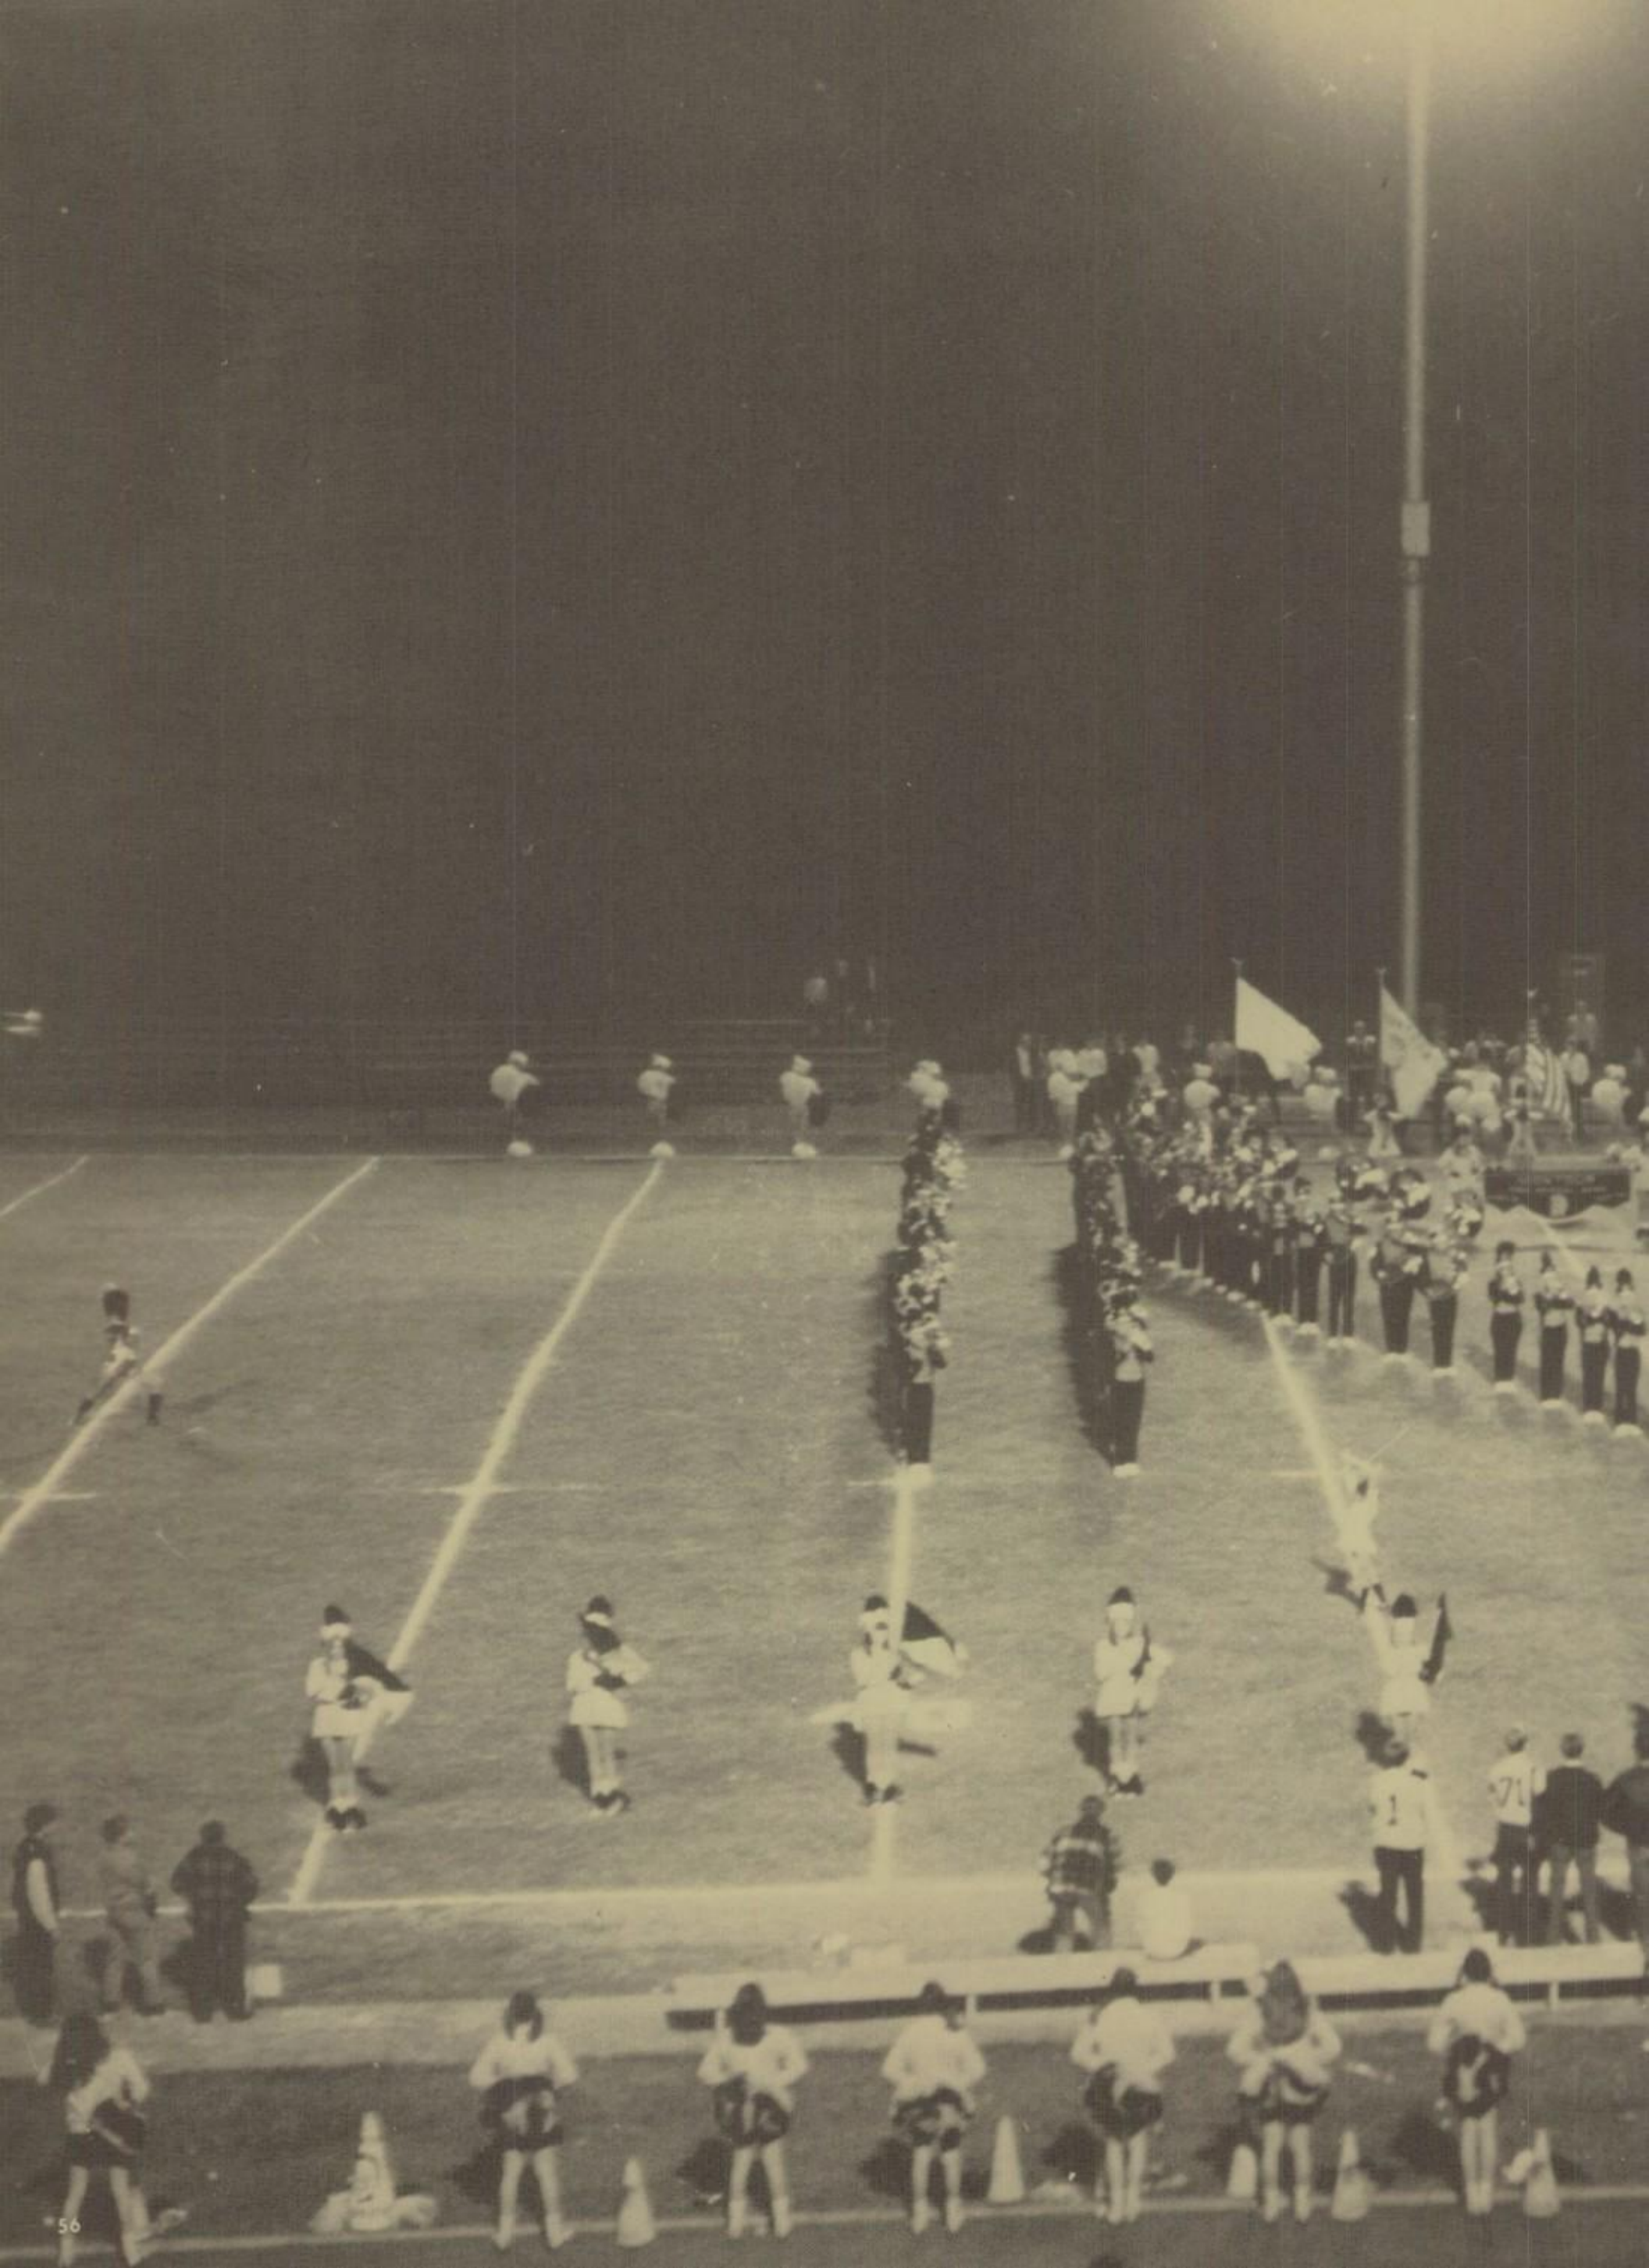

"WE'RE FROM MONTGOMERY, COULDN'T BE PROUDER!"

Come Blow Your Horn

Playing the Alma Mater, the grandeur of halftime performances, brilliant black and gold uniforms,
sparkling gold tubas, Majorettes and Spartanettes
displaying unique routines, Exact precision marching, the crowning of SANDY WILSON, Band Queen.
We're all proud of the magnificence of our band,
But where would they be without such a capable director?
Indeed, Mr. Picchi truly deserves the respect and esteem given him by every member.

Raining all day Friday, postponed until the following evening,
With threatening clouds overhead, all preparations were made.

Colorful floats were driven around the football field.

The rain came — umbrellas crowded the bleachers

Halftime brought the suspenseful announcement

we eagerly awaited: Linda Wagner, Maid of Honor; NANCY HARTWICK, HOMECOMING QUEEN!

Radio Club, Pep Club, Student Council, receiving

prizes for winning floats,

And topping off this special evening, a superb

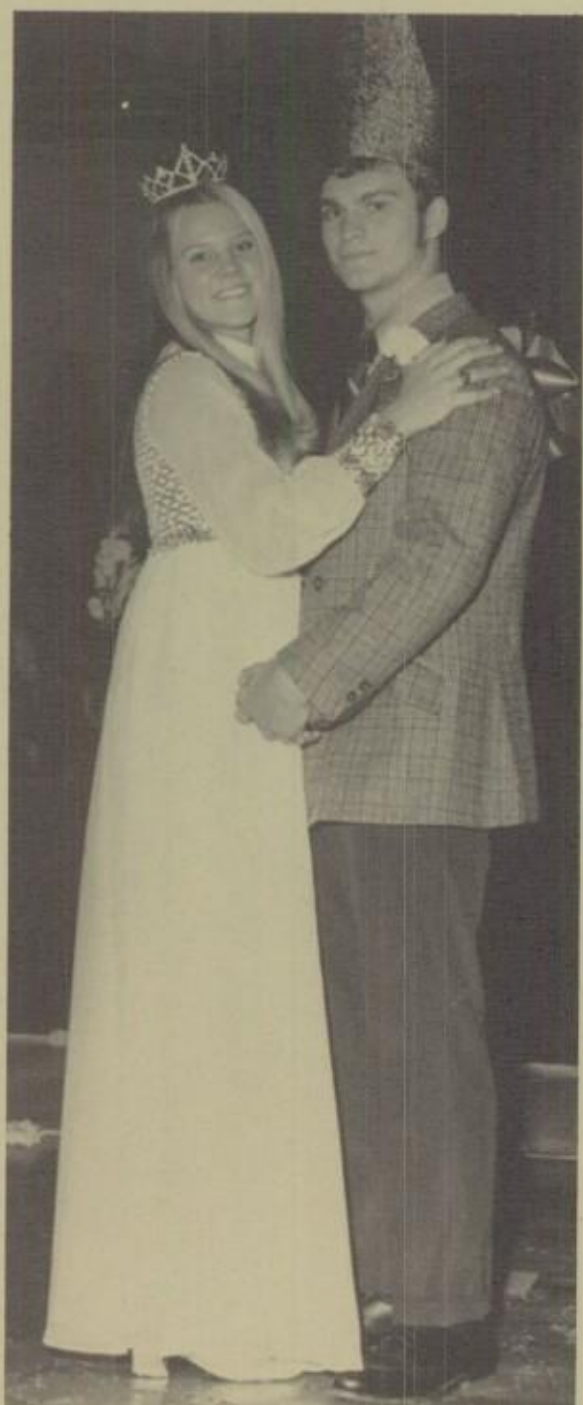

36-0 victory over Uniontown!

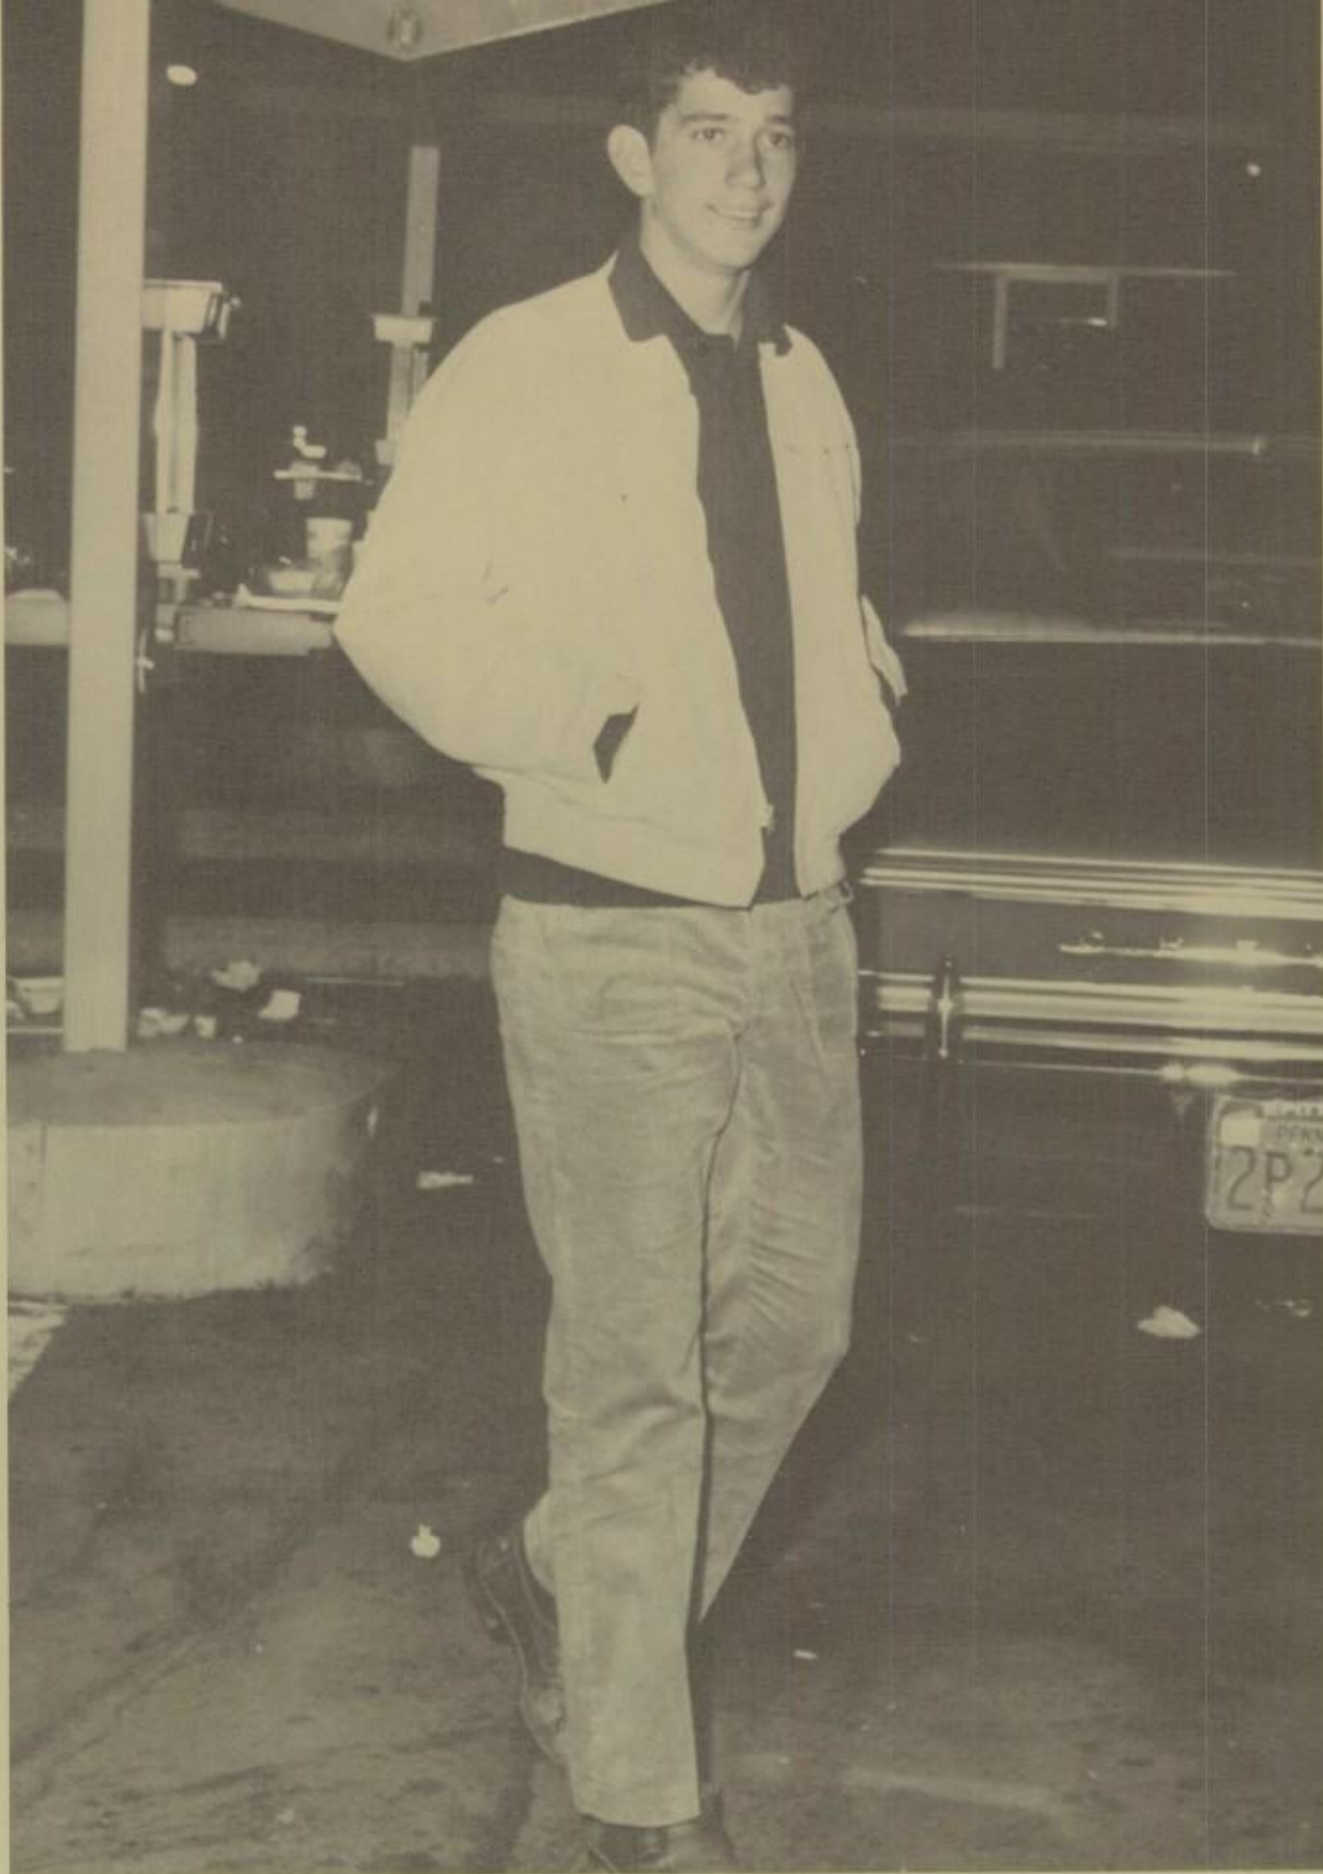

Oh, the Wonder of it All

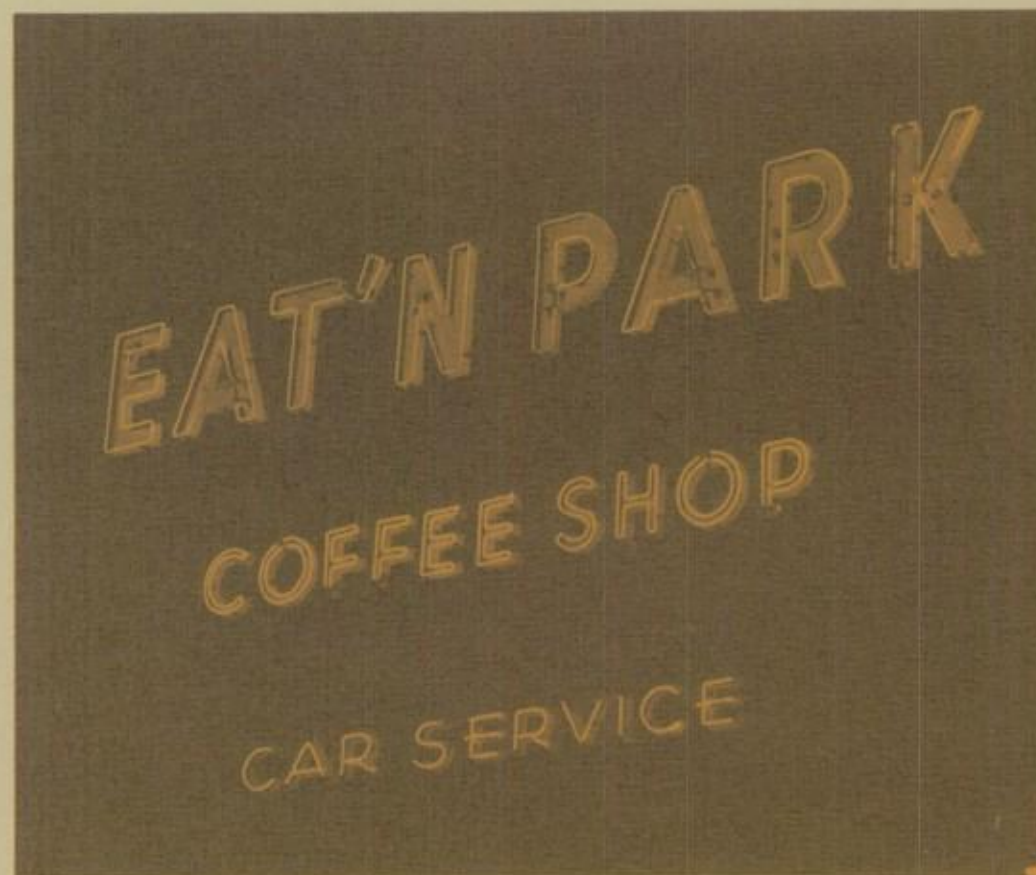

NANCY HARTWICK
Homecoming Queen
1971

The gym's atmosphere was somehow transformed with the introduction of the court. Who would be crowned Football King? We felt the anticipation as Bill Daniels was named runner-up. JERRY KOLLER was then crowned king and led the traditional King and Queen dance. Colorful decorations, a live group — a memorable November 20.

This is Friday night — a time for forgetting all your troubles, for having fun.
A place for meeting your gang and new friends,
For easing hunger pangs over a "Big Boy"
and French fries,
For celebrating our victories — where the action is!

Let Me Take You Where the Action Is Curses . . .

What a way to start off the season,
 playing Sto-Rox.
 We cheered, we screamed, we fought.
 Our boys played their hardest,
 but fate was against them.
 Losing our opener was rough, yet we came back winning.
 Char Valley, C.M., Trinity, Carlynton — game after game we poured it on!
 On February 5 the "Curses were foiled again."
 We tried and held our heads high as the remaining seconds dwindled away.
 Yet, our boys kept their spirit
 until the very end.
 We're still "Number One"
 and that's what counts!

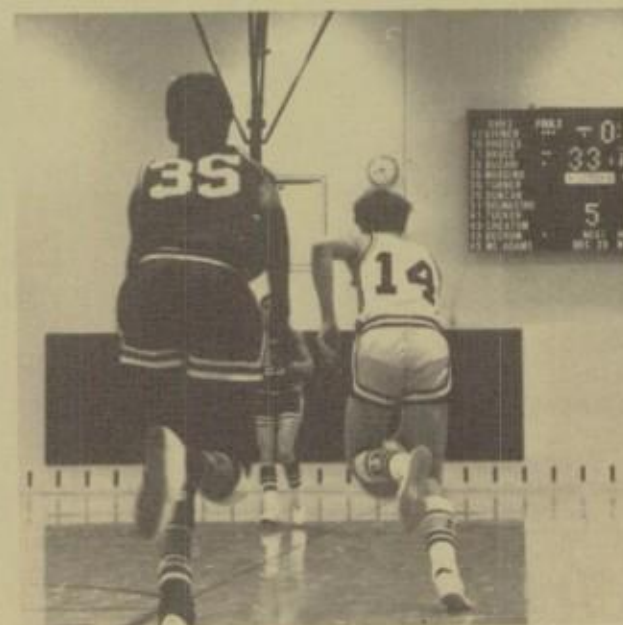

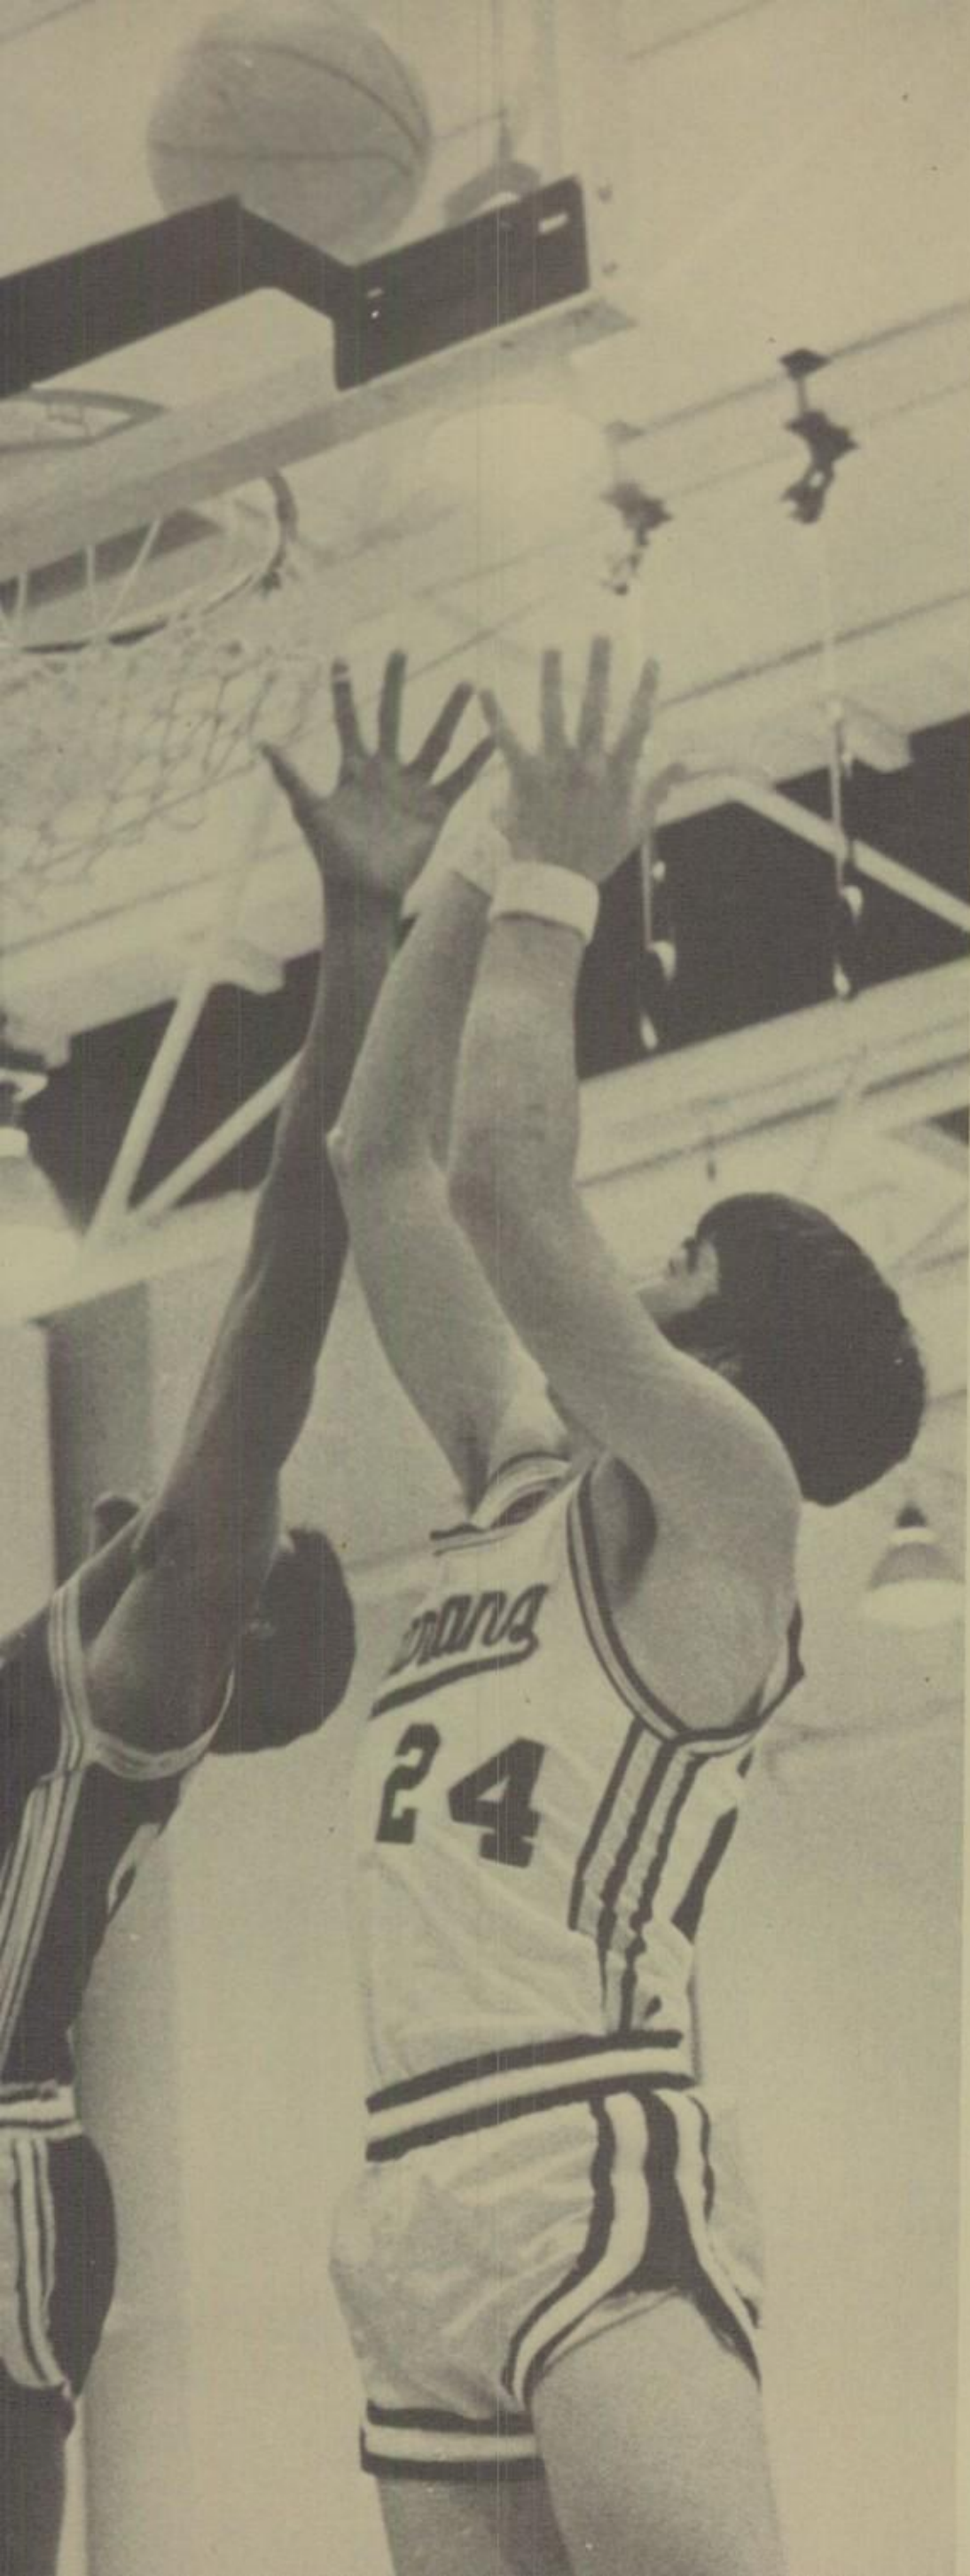

Foiled Again

Montour High Super Stars . . .

Winning or losing, our boys are super.

Their pride is overwhelming, their spirit intensive.

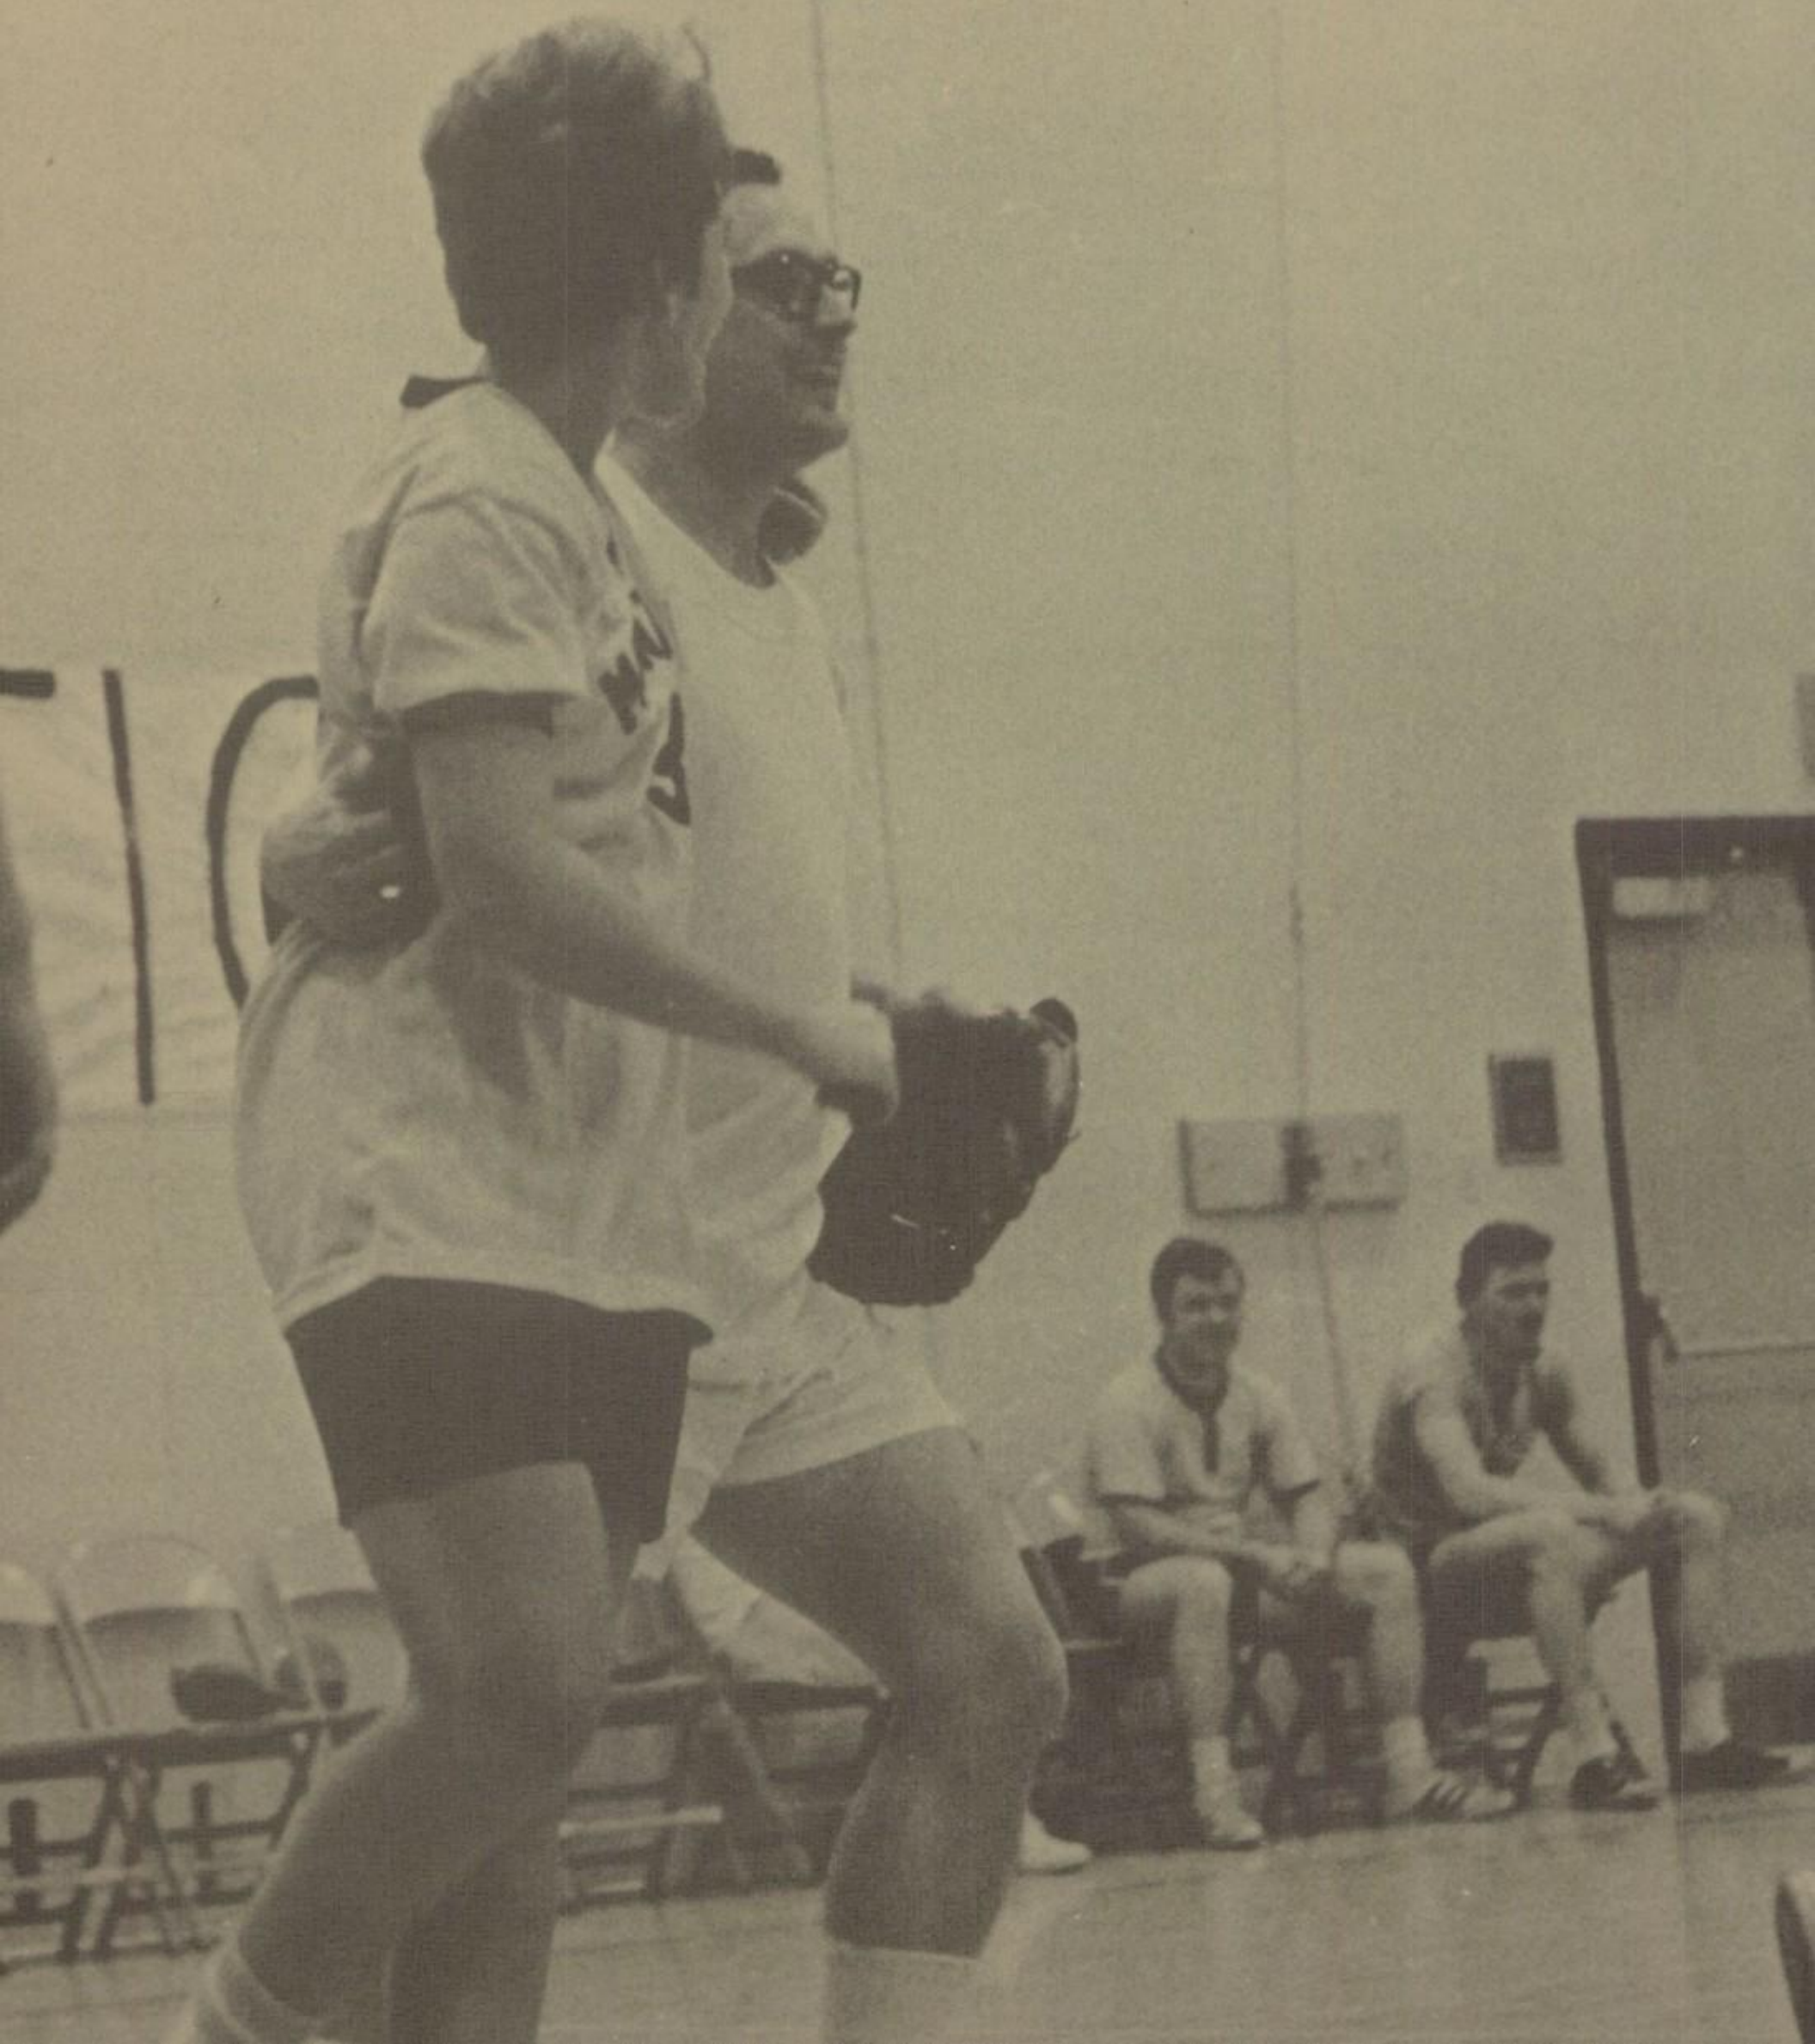

Demonstrating the power of sincere teamwork, they exhibit their skills on the court.

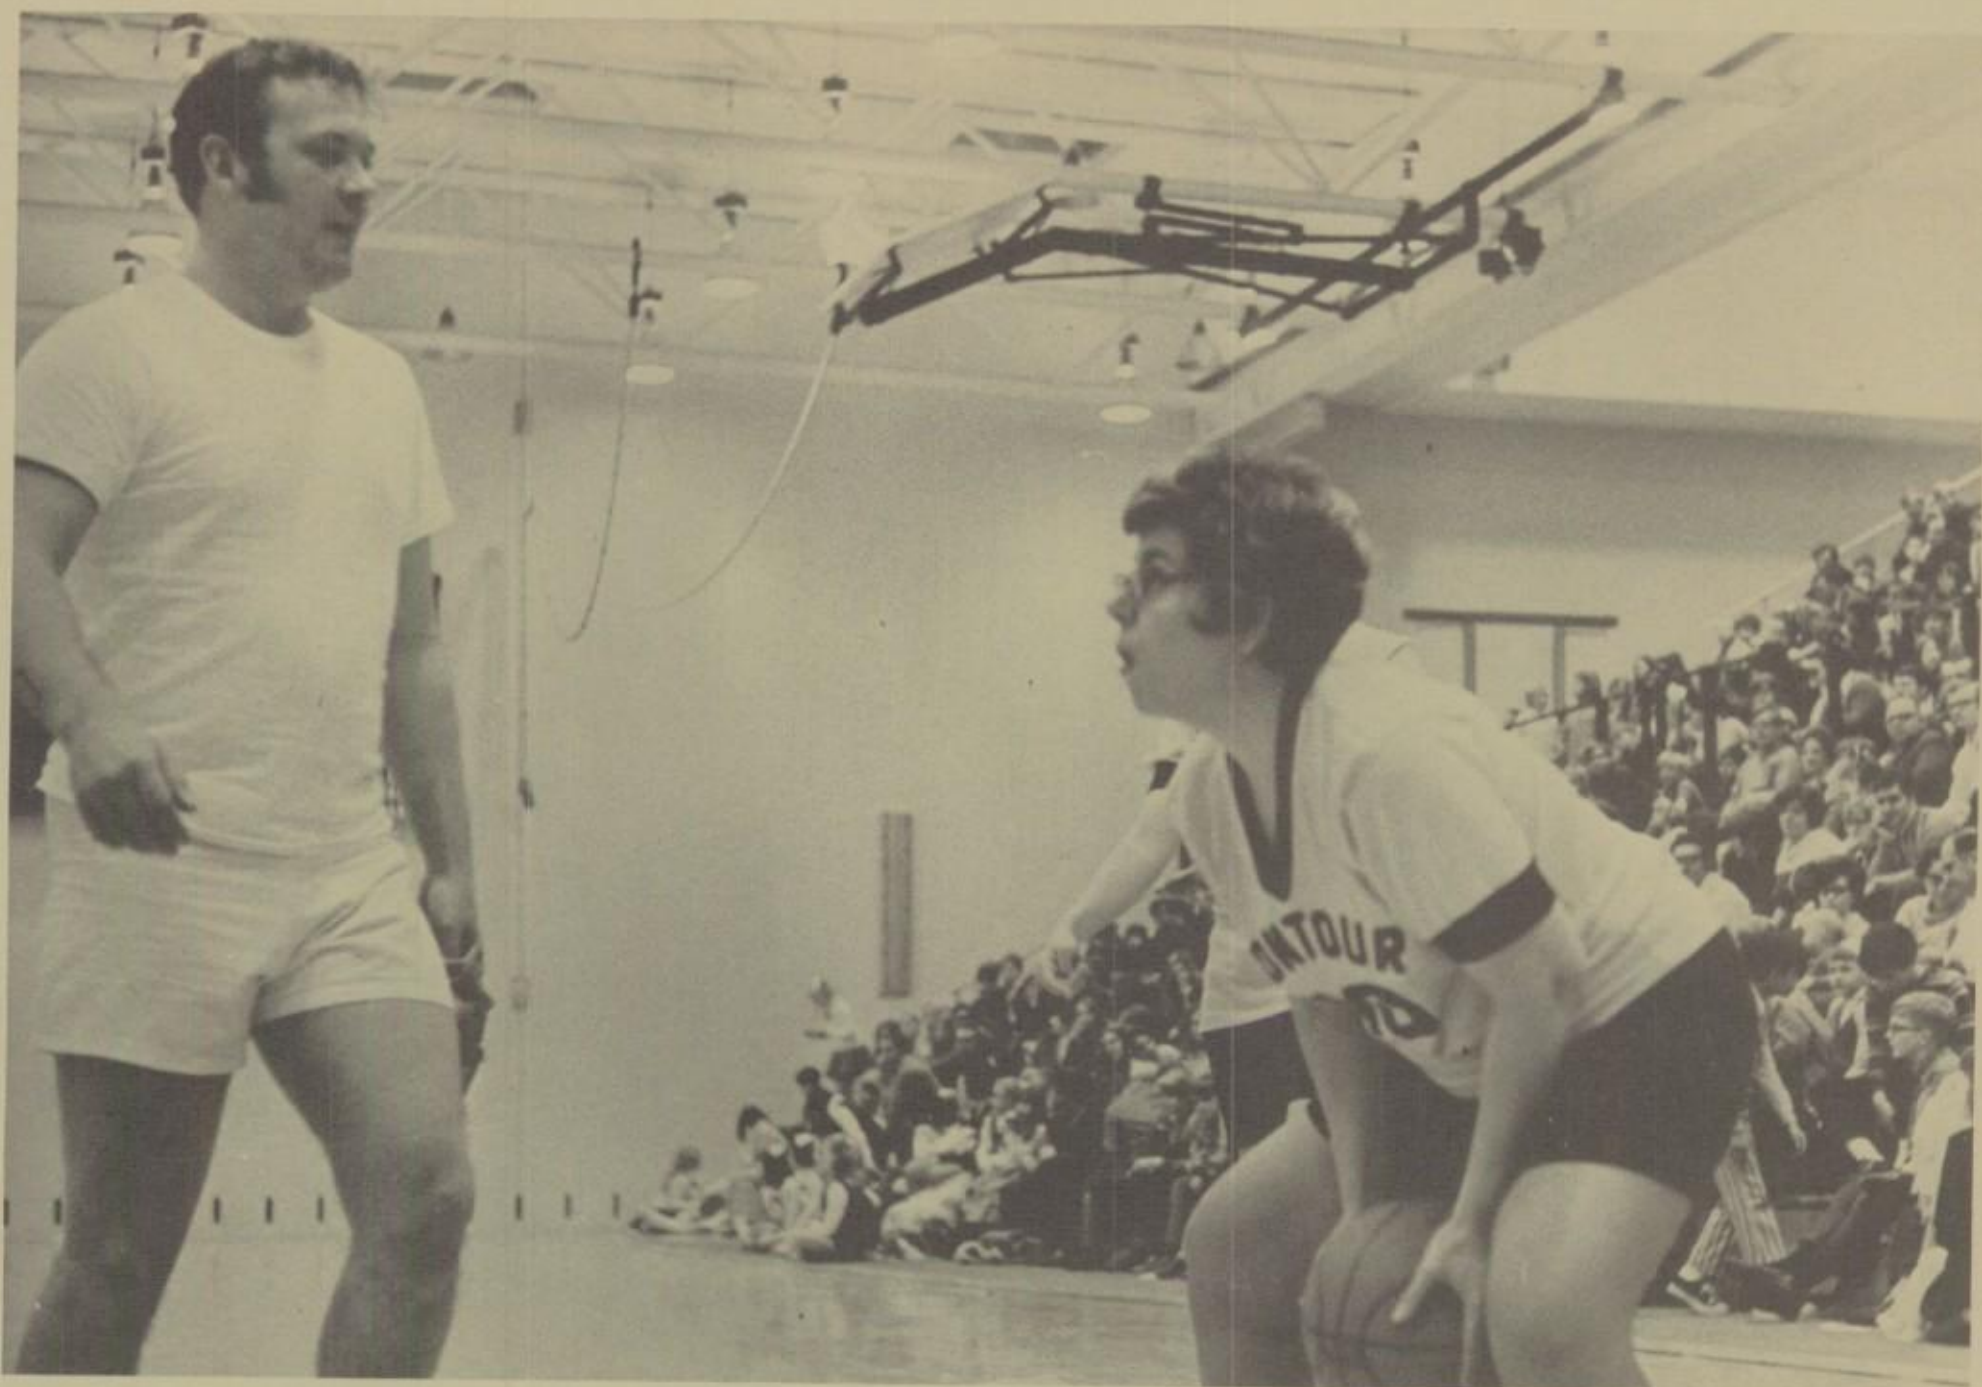

How many of us could meet our opponents courageously in an extremely pressured moment?

Montour High is the land of the SUPER STARS . . .

Jim Ciamacco, the high scorer of the season.

The Over the Hill Gang

Yes, it's a basketball game, only who's playing?

Not only do our boys dribble the ball down the court, but our faculty as well.
The faculty game disclosed the teachers' true talents. It was an event we will all remember.

Splish! Splash!

Indeed, swimming means giving up free time.

It's a sport requiring great speed — an essential skill in competing.

It's diving into a heated pool, developing strong strokes.

Yes, it's building up one's endurance.

We, at Montour, have all the ingredients for success: A beautiful pool,

a hardworking team,
and fine coach!

All the strenuous hours after school — building scenery, making centerpieces.

At last December is here;
the time has come.

Decorating the gym, adding all the final touches,

A great deal of hard work,
but a lot of fun.

A Time for Us

Venturing into the warmth of
 "The Enchanted Kingdom," Dancing to the sound of the Domains, dining in splendor, candy castles,
 sparkling trees,
 soft velvet,
 beautiful corsages —
 All transforming a cold wintry evening into an absolutely perfect one!

*Best Wishes,
W. Condelucci*

"One never knows" — in these mere words we find much inspiration. How many of us would be willing to relinquish our free time to chaperon Pep Club buses?

To devote many strenuous hours directing the Junior Class Play for the past five years?

To help a student not only scholastically, but with all the personal problems confronting him?

Indeed, developing self-conscious teenagers into poised public speakers takes a great deal of patience. Developing negligent individuals into "conscientious students" takes exceptional courage.

Yes, Mr. Condelucci, we dedicate the 1971 Mirror to you for all of these reasons.

We cherish all of the fond memories you have brought us, and we thank you for all you have done.

Awakening to the sound of the alarm in the morning, Falling asleep to the constant
"ticking" at night,
Yes, clocks are symbolic of TIME.

In this ever moving world every precious minute is so meaningful — Bringing us all the needed ingredients for success.

Seniors

Our dreams have finally become realities and we are all seniors — cramming for finals, writing English themes, and hoping for a miracle as we struggle through P.O.D. What a wonderful feeling, being "on top" and having the great pride only a senior can possess while cheering at football and basketball games.

But with the coming of May, our year slowly draws to an end, and Commencement Day nears. We wear our caps and gowns with immense happiness as we all march together for the very last time. Yes, this is the day we have anxiously awaited; we look back on our school days and all the unforgettable memories that time brings.

The Cream of the Crop

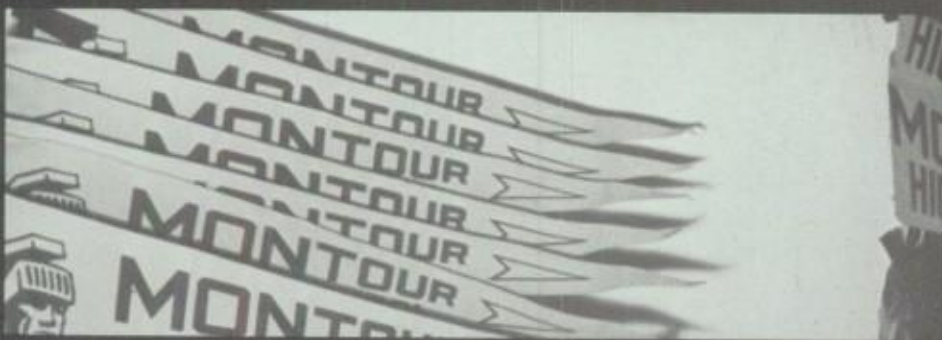

Being a junior is the overwhelming enthusiasm of receiving class rings, walking into a homeroom on the "400 level." It's sponsoring activities — bake sales, car washes to raise funds for the annual Junior-Senior Prom in the spring. Combining their talents, they present the Junior Class Play after many, strenuous weeks of preparation. Memorizing Hamlet's soliloquy or delving into the battles of the Civil War are vivid aspects of the curriculum.

The Class of '72" helped greatly in furthering our school spirit at pep rallies and games. On several occasions, due to their huge enrollment, they even succeeded in outcheering the seniors in "Two Bits!"

Activities

What are you interested in? Do you have leadership qualities and enjoy voicing your opinion in an organization working for the student body? Student Council sponsors the "Swirl" and many other events throughout the year. What specific career is you? Whether you intend to be a nurse, scientist, homemaker, or teacher — we have the club for you. Student Secretaries and the Library Club offer services to the school. Do you have the four essential qualities for membership in the National Honor Society, or are you athletic and fit to be a leader? If you have special talents, the Chorus and Chess Club are for you. Thus, Thursday morning is a time for joining clubs, a time for activities.

Sports

Being "Number One" is making the first touchdown in every football game. It's dribbling a basketball and putting a golf ball with the greatest ease. It's hitting a homerun with the bases loaded or capturing a swimming meet. Yes, at Montour we have a wide range of sports; our boys bring us intense pride in every aspect of athletics. Not only do our boys compete, but our girls as well. In basketball, volleyball and gymnastics they express their splendid skills and talents. We have the teams and the spirit needed to always come out on top!

Faculty

Teaching is a profession which requires numerous qualities, with patience taking first place among the many. Did you ever attempt to instruct a group and try to keep the attention of every individual at the same time? This is a daily problem confronting a teacher in the classroom.

Our faculty not only provides enlightening subject matter, but moral and personal guidance as well. They sponsor our activities and clubs; they coach on the athletic field. They are of great value to us and play a large part in our lives. Without our excellent teaching staff, we would leave Montour unprepared to meet the challenges of the future.

Care about thinking.
Care about learning.
Care about reading.
Care about your country.
Care about your God.
Care about your family.
Care about bigotry.
Care about discrimination.
Care about poverty.
Care about war.
Care about hypocrisy.
Care about justice.
Care about your environment.
Never say, "I don't care" or "Couldn't care less."
Not only care, but do.
Do your best and your best will do.

Although the ads occupy the last section, they are far from unimportant; without them this yearbook would not have been possible. The Montour Mirror Staff wishes to express its greatest thanks to everyone patronizing the 1971 Mirror. At this time we would also like to acknowledge all of those contributing in any way — making it such an immense success.

The END — but the beginning,
Encountering new experiences, making unique decisions.
No longer together, we go our separate ways.
Looking out into the distance, the future is ours.

Jim

To a really great guy whom I've had loads of fun with. How could anybody forget all the crazy times up at old Spanish (i.e. The kid)

Even though you're a farmer you're sure to succeed in life as - personally with that great personality. Keep it up, the monitor may someday be as great as the Angels. good luck...

Jim,

To a terrible lab partner who better not forget about the shallow troughs.
We both had enough time to learn our lessons about that! It's probably the only thing you learned all year in Chemistry (^{ME} ^{TOO})
But aside from your rare talents in Chemistry, you also have a great friendly personality that I'll never forget. In you I saw a giving-more-than-taking personality that made me feel good inside so thanks for being around Good Luck!
God Bless you,
Ed
